Bringing Forth the Light of the Mother

Children of the Diamond Heart,

IAM Mary, the Mother, your Mother, the one who holds the Immaculate Concept for you day and night, lifetime after lifetime. I will continue to do so until your Victory, at which time you will be called upon to hold the Immaculate Concept for those who are yet to ascend. This is the practice that you must learn to master throughout your incarnation — how to hold fast to the understanding of the Perfection of the Diamond Heart.

The Light of the Mother is veiled to you as a child, and only awakened at night while you sleep, lulled by the song of the Mother's Heart. The Mother's Light is veiled to you as a youth until there is the mastery and the understanding of the wise use of the kundalini fires.

The Mother's Light is veiled from the aspirant, the new disciple, who, although exuberant, is not yet guarded and trained in the wise use of the Sacred Fire, and whose ego is not yet harnessed to the Divine Ego directed by the Will of God. That aspirant, once having determined to pursue the Path, must then take on the garments of Wisdom.

The Mother's Light is veiled from the Son and Daughter of God until such time as there has been sufficient application of the right use of all that has already gone before — all of the talents, all of the gifts, all of the treasures. Look about and see where there is the need to fine-tune those gifts already present within the folds of your garment. Once mastered, the Mother's Light will be unveiled, and you will discover that lying just below the surface there has always been the fullness of the Abundance of the Love of God, the Light of God, the Truth of God, and all of those God Qualities that you desire to achieve.

The Mother's Light is veiled where there is foolish zeal that moves forward untempered by Wisdom's Ray. The Mother's Light is veiled where there is not a level of conscious interaction with Cosmic Law. The Mother's Light is veiled from all who insist on forcing creation, not waiting for the Cosmic Cycles and the rhythmic flow of time to bring about the congruency of the Light within.

Wear the Garment of Christhood

As you can see, the Mother Light is always present, always tangible, but the requirement of the Law for its fulfillment in matter is that each Son and Daughter of God must first wear the garment of their Christhood. For "right action" and "right use" are the very fountain of Cosmic Law.

All about you, creation is brought forth because of the right use of the Mother Light by those adepts who have gone before you, who have brought into this physical octave the Beauty and the Joy necessary for your present comfort. That comfort is your Grace to pursue the Path, the time you require to place your attention upon God, and the refreshment to wash away any human creation still lingering about you that does not allow for the fulfillment of all that you desire.

Mankind have yet to wake up to the reality of their true nature. Even as I speak, there are those who would rather gravitate to my message of long ago, as though it were a great event, a prophesy, never to come again — instead of holding fast to the inner voice of the Mother Flame that resounds throughout the Earth to wake up — wake up, mankind, and know who you are!

The Mother Light will remain veiled until such time as there are those who desire to be their God Presence in action. But where that desire is present, the Mother Light will rise into the Heart and bring mankind into the Golden Age. The Light of the Mother is as close as your God Presence, but many do not realize that the Light within their Heart is the key to opening the door to its full release.

Morya has talked of the gates to be opened at certain cycles of initiation when the Mother Light is ready to come forth. Each of you will know when the cycle is upon you, when you must grasp the opportunity and strive with the fullness of the Will of your own God Flame to move into the achievement of your mastery, and to bring about the creations you came to accomplish.

Give Birth to the Light of God

Each of you was born to give birth — to give birth to a host of creative endeavors, to ideas, to inventions, to color, to art — and yes, to the very precious incoming lifestreams who will come forth to carry the Flame. The fulfillment of the Mother's Light is not simply parents who can give birth to a child, but one who can give birth to the Light of God. All are called upon to manifest mastery, and this cannot be accomplished absent the Light of the Mother.

Know that you hold the key to veils that must be pierced and transmuted. Your Heart will know where to direct your attention, when to exert the pressure of your application, and thus ignite the Fire of your Heart.

The Mother's Light is veiled to the newborn as a shield of protection. But to the adept there is no veil. Each of you is called upon to rise into your own adeptship and master the Light of God. You need not go back to archaic times and gravitate to all of the superstition and dogma associated with my previous appearances. Know full well that your Heart is guarded by my Vision, and my Vision is open to each of you.

I trust that, as you place your attention this day upon the Heart of the Mother in all of the historic, magnificent roles of the Mother, you will not forsake the true Mother Light within yourself, and will honor that Immaculate Concept that is held fast within your own Heart by my Heart.

O Sons and Daughters of God, be sealed this day in the Love of my Heart and know who you are.

Mother Mary
