Anchor the Flame of Peace for the Earth

I have lowered the Flame of Peace. And thus should you begin your life, day by day. For when you have fixed your consciousness, centered in Peace, filled with the Love of God, content in the Allness of God, then you are prepared to chart your course.

Throughout the world there are those lifestreams charged with certain responsibilities, to lead, conduct, and orchestrate civil affairs that others will be obliged to follow according to the governments and cultures in the land. Moreover, you have come to realize that those areas of responsibility must be infused with the Light of God if the greater whole of the fabric of life upon the Earth is to be governed ultimately by the Hand of God. And thus, you have accepted the Responsibility from your own Presence as the Divine Self, the God of Being, the I AM, to maintain your vibration, your Peace so that in as much as you are a part of the fabric of the Allness of God, you are expanding the very Presence of God here below and not detracting with one erg of energy.

Many times, selfish endeavors tear away at the fabric of the best laid plans of the Ascended Masters. For after all, we are only permitted to accomplish in the physical, emotional, mental, and memory planes of the Earth that which embodied lifestreams will anchor! We are not like grand wizards manipulating all manner of forces that cause mankind to be constrained to certain actions or a Godly way of life. Ours is an activity of entreating the Heart Flame to come into its own, to have Divine Communion with the Allness of God and, thus, prepare that vehicle of the outer consciousness as mind, as emotion, as the physical body to be responsive to the Hand of God that only desires God Good for all.

I AM Chananda, Chief of the Indian Council. It is my great honor and Service to work most closely with the Great Divine Director, as well as others who serve on the Blue Flame of the Will of God to ensure that there is deposited more of an outpouring of the Power of God for those Sons and Daughters who have grasped their initiations, taken to heart Illumination's Flame, and become initiates on the Path to the Ascension. We are determined there will be that full measure of this God Power ready and waiting for each such lifestream to draw upon.

The Councils of the Brotherhood of Light will from time to time be charged with specific actions which must be lowered into these realms in which you are incarnate. Without initiates in embodiment, who would receive the transfer of the Body Consciousness of the rarefied atmosphere of God? Who would be prepared with an upraised chalice capable of holding fast to all that the Presence of God would pour forth?

Throughout the world there is much need for enlightened leaders. For most of those who are a part of governing nations, economies, small factions of peoples are misguided. Some even lack the Flame of God tangible enough to do more than to breathe the oxygen in the air and draw life which they usurp from others. But nonetheless, the world's leaders all require the Presence of God to enlighten, illumine, and purify their vehicles. For until such time as that occurs and there is a staying of all of the havoc, mayhem, and warring, there will not be Peace fully realized in the land.

My Responsibility and that of my Council is to share with you the task that we must carry out — with your assistance — to maintain Peace in the lands throughout the Earth. For every time there are those warring factions that rise up against the innocent — and sometimes not so innocent — it is a distraction for those of pure heart, of gentle persuasion, of Harmony and Peace who value beauty, art, divine culture, tearing those lifestreams' attention away from the beauties that naturally would flow through them from the Presence of God, parading before the consciousness all manner of desecration polluting the innocent and the holy.

So I have come to invite you to take up this Work with my Council when calling for the healing of the economies of the world. I entreat you to likewise call for the Hand of Peace to abide so that all nations in every land may begin to know the very Vibration that is the intrinsic Nature of the Presence of God breathed upon the Heart Flame, drawing it forth and not accepting any lesser vibration for themselves or for others.

Throughout the history of the Earth, there have always been those warring factions of humanity, jockeying for power, ego, acclaim. All the while, having once realized their ambitions, discover that they are nothing of worth, for they are void of what they had sincerely hoped for themselves. They see within the pure Heart Flames of the Sons and Daughters of God who are living a Godly life a Radiance, a Joy, an upliftment. Yet, in the greed and manipulation of their own human creation, those who have striven to usurp that Light discover they cannot steal it away, but they must draw it from within themselves.

Though the Light be all about you, the Abundance of God tangible, the beauties glorious to behold, nonetheless, when the Heart Flame has been locked away and not allowed to breathe in the Pranic Breaths in their purest nature or have the Threefold Flame establish its Vibration, charging the vehicles of consciousness with the God Qualities that stream forth from the Heart of God in the Great Central Sun, then it is most understandable why these lifestreams feel there is nothing to live for, and in their anger against God in life, have no conscience when it comes to fomenting war and mayhem against God's innocents.

It is important for you as students of the Light to have this understanding. For you are not intended to live separate and apart from mankind, save in vibration. If you were to ignore the crying needs upon the Earth that require the assistance of your Mighty I AM Presence, the Holy Angels, the Ascended and Cosmic Beings, then who would be the ones to make the Call? Who would come to the aid and assistance of those who would, if given another opportunity, better their life, raise their vibration just a little higher so that they could experience a moment's Peace in communion with God? Who, if not you?

You who have much to give, you who know of the Mighty I AM Presence, you who have been moved by the Hand of God, you have had the experience in the Love of God that has brought you to tears of joy, you who have more Love than you need, you can give it. Going to your altar, communing within the Holy of Holies of your lifestream allows for the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart to rise and leap into the waiting consciousness, not only of your own God Presence, but of the Ascended and Cosmic Beings! That daily Service at the Altar, blessed hearts, is no small matter! For you to have entrée into communion with an Archangel, an Elohim, a Chohan, a Manu — when they have invited you is an honor, one that you should not take lightly, but reverently, filling you with a sense of Responsibility, of Holy Purpose and Divine Intent!

When I, Chananda, come into contact with lifestreams that do not know my name, my vibration, or my Office, I marvel at the response of their Heart

Flame that is most visible to my sight. For regardless of the outer persona or the words that are spoken, even the language of the body, their Heart Flame leaps to greet me! For it will not be denied when in the Presence of one who is devoted to the Will of God, one who is devoted to the Love of God, and one who is drawing forth the Wisdom of the ages for the transfer into the consciousness of those who are ready to receive it and to build upon it for the greater good of all.

Having the Love that you have for your God Presence, putting it first, save for the Mighty I AM, establishes a greater conduit connecting you with the Heart of God in the Great Central Sun. When confronted with the necessities of life that come upon you from time to time, you instantly know where to draw your attention to establish that Current of Light into your outer vehicles so that you are not adrift in this physical world, floundering like so many, not knowing whether to turn to the right or to the left, not knowing whether to run or to stay, but having the Wisdom of the Will of God imparted to you. For in that moment when you require clarity and vision, it will be imparted.

This is why I come to you, to entreat you to assist in bringing forth Peace upon the Earth so that there can be a return to the Edenic Consciousness of Purity in the Heart of God.

Let not a day go by that you have not uttered a Call to expand this Peace!

I, Chananda, can witness to you that in so doing, you will find a scintillating Fire coursing through your consciousness, catching you up in the Peace and Harmony of God that allows your Heart Flame to be a veritable Fountain of Light — spiraling, scintillating in the Consciousness of your own God Presence because you have finally instilled Peace to flow regularly, constantly, through your own vehicles. Understanding that in the exercise of expanding God Peace to assist all upon the Earth, you are also holding the balance for your very own brothers and sisters of ages past. Though you no longer remember their names, you certainly have the heart-tie to their lifestreams. And this Service of intercession, by the Grace of God, is expanding the Light in your own life. But I caution you. Do not enter into these exercises of assistance to an Ascended Master for selfish reasons. You must rather let your Heart's innate desiring for the Light go forth to assist God in life everywhere. Then, you may receive the reward of the servant of God.

I, Chananda, commend you to your journey on this new adventure. For those who truly grasp this responsibility, taking it to heart and carrying through — I thank you in advance. We will have much communion together in this Flame. That is assured.

Be at Peace. Breathe it in. Breathe it out. Command Peace to Be!

Chananda
