I Come to Address You Regarding the Race!

As Chief of the Darjeeling Council, I, El Morya, come to address you regarding the race! For each one of you has been engaged in the race of life beginning with the first of your incarnations. And then, you marked a new beginning of each incarnation, followed by interludes of rest between embodiments, gathering strength to come again and again, each time striving to meet the requirements that your own God Presence has designed for you.

Many times, in the course of the race, you lose your footing, lose your vision and go off course, and find that you must look to a higher source of inspiration, if you wish to call it that. I would prefer to call it for what it is — the Will of God! For after all, is it not the Will of God that has inspired you from the beginning? Is it not the Will of God that has imparted to you how to make your way through a given lifetime? It is only when you are not within the Will of God that you go astray and find your way almost unbearable, even to the negation of that lifetime and the necessary striving once more to take up the course and try again.

You, blessed hearts, are indeed the hope of the world. For if not those who understand the Will of God, where shall we, the Darjeeling Council and all of the Councils of the Brotherhood of Light, look for the ones who will lead the charge into a Golden Age? Yes, many Golden Ages have come and gone, and you wonder how it could be that a civilization would reach the pinnacle of attainment to be able to understand the breadth of the Consciousness of their own Christhood coursing through them, energizing, guiding, guarding, imparting the Vision of their own God Presence, and assisting them in all manner of ways in which the Christ can teach the outer vehicles to be more like the Presence of God — and then collapse. The downfall of the consciousness of mankind occurs, blessed ones, when there is not the ability for the Flame upon the Altar of the Heart to be ignited to such a magnitude that it flourishes throughout each of their vehicles of consciousness, taking Christ Command over all of their affairs and insinuating into the fabric of life on Earth the charge of Light that can only come forth when the Presence of God is at hand.

You are a small band of glorious Sons and Daughters of God. You have heard the inner call. Many have responded with their all, while others still will sit indefinitely on the sidelines contemplating their fate, wondering if they should venture in any further. “What is in it for me? What will I receive?” is the constant rehearsal in their outer mind. “What is it that makes me feel like I am a part of a bigger family?” the emotions rehearse. “What is it that gives me a sense of purpose when I have found no other purpose that is pleasing in life?” Blessed hearts, when you are standing in the Flame of the Will of God, you know full well what is that Divine Purpose. It is to be that Presence of God in all areas of your life. It matters not your worldly profession. For when you are in the presence and the flow of the Light and Life of the Body Consciousness of your Mighty I AM, all things that you touch, all your affairs become rarefied by the charge of Light that you imbue into every aspect of your life.

When you are standing in the full array of your own Threefold Flame, the vision that is imparted to you will have greater clarity. You will be able to see what is just beyond the next curve, the next hill, the next endeavor. And if you are not able to see, most assuredly you will be able to make your way to that next endeavor; for you have the sustaining Faith in the Presence of God that you have already identified as the Will of God in action in you, and you march forward. And as you begin to march forward, you find a mounting acceleration in your life; the pace picks up; and before you know it, you are running with lightning speed to greet the new day, for it holds great promise for you.

That, blessed hearts, is the race of life that each one of you should be experiencing — knowing that at the close of your life you have run the race that your Presence desired, that you have grasped all that you were to learn, to internalize; and thus, there awaits a celebration of your lifestream. No weeping for you; for after all, you are held steadfast in the arms of Light of your own God Presence.

How many times have you repeated this cyclic race? Incarnation after incarnation, you weave the thread of the garment of your own attainment and, according to that attainment, hold fast to that momentum that carries you into each incarnation until, at some point, your Presence says, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant! Come! Be within me! Be all that I AM. Know the Presence of God."

Blessed hearts, how glorious is the opportunity that is extended with every incarnation. One might wonder, however, when you look about at the masses and see how cavalier they have become with that opportunity. For how quickly the multitudes are willing to adopt any foreign consciousness floating by that does not resonate with the Threefold Flame of their Heart, merely because there is a group-think abounding.

The planetary riptides of thought and feeling are not new to you who are sincere students of the Path and of the race. For you have understood that when that mass consciousness rolls in and affronts you with its impersonal attack, you have no recourse but to take up your Decrees, your Affirmations, your Fiats to God and deal with that recalcitrant, menacing energy on the instant. And it works. Time and again you prove the Law. You understand how the Law works, and you will not allow the encroachment upon your own Purity that is within. You will not allow for your course to be misdirected when Truth is at the very core of your being, charting your journey.

I speak to you this day in my Office as Chief of the Darjeeling Council to sound the Clarion Call to be alert, attentive to the goings-on in the thought and feeling world that are reverberating not only throughout the United States but across the world. For with the mass communication of this technological era, it takes little time for a firestorm of discord to sweep around the world, taking over and shifting the momentums of the unsuspecting Sons and Daughters of God into a flurry of negativity, redirecting their intent, their momentums. Having lost their way, forsaking that attunement once grounded upon the Christ, and losing the touchstone of God Reality, they become mere tools to be utilized by stronger minds.

O blessed hearts, the manipulation of forces unseen moves through the land daily, and you cannot ignore your purpose in life in upholding the Flame of Truth, galvanizing the Light of God where you are, and standing up for the Truth that is based on the Rock of God Reality. This is your calling! With all that you are required to fulfill in your day, your Decrees cannot go unspoken. The momentum that you have garnered in knowing how to give the call to enlist the Armies of the Lord, to have the Angels by your side, to have Elohim respond — this is a high and holy calling that should not be ignored. Things are seemingly good in the land, but what if that good should turn? Who then will the Sons and Daughters of God depend upon to show them the way?

Even though you personally may not be in the forefront of the consciousness of the masses, your Light certainly is! And your Presence has incarnated in this era to achieve a great work! Consider your previous incarnations as training for this moment and this time. Do not negate your responsibilities!

I, El Morya, issue the call to the lightbearers, the Sons and Daughters of God, to awaken to the Reality of the Divine Nature that is present upon the Altar of their Heart, to see to the fulfillment of the Will of God within each lifestream according to their attainment, their mastery, and their ability to hold fast. What do I mean by holding fast? When all about you may fall, you must be standing. When others are in need of consolation and comfort, you are giving that consolation and comfort. When all others are ill and in need, you are ready to call forth the Angels and the Masters to assist, you enlist the help of the Mighty I AM Presence.

All this you will be capable of achieving if you have forged your own reality in God. But if you have merely had an exercise of the intellect to know a thing but not become it, then, blessed hearts, it will be most difficult for you in those moments of need to exercise the full release of God Light, God Momentum, God Vision, God Reality. For there will not have been a momentum built up within you nor the training to hold fast to be the guard consciousness, to have the resilience of the fortitude, the courage, the strength, and, most importantly, the Love that draws the Will of God into your midst and allows that Will to be sure.

Blessed ones, through your many incarnations, you have been on the front lines of countless wars, losing your life fighting for a particular cause. We do not ask you to give up your mortal life in this hour. We ask you to infuse with Light the consciousness that has once been anchored in mortality that it may be resurrected into the Christ Consciousness so that when you are called upon in any circumstance of life to give your all, you will have the Presence to call upon to be the sustenance, the source, the motor of life. Thus you can be counted upon time and time again. Blessed hearts, it has always been the case throughout history that the many depend upon the few. The many may not know your name, but they will certainly know the Flame of God when it descends in its full Glory to save them, to nourish them, to give them God Direction.

The Earth is presently in a most difficult situation, if you wish to call it that. I could speak to you for hours on how the world has come to the state of affairs that it is in politically, economically, spiritually. But what is most important to me in this hour is that you understand what is important for you — the few. What will you do? Will you be prepared?

We have sounded this tone for some time — put your house in order; practice the teachings; train and discipline your outer vehicles so they are responsive on the instant. They do not need the prodding of the circumstance about them to recognize on the instant that the Christ Light must shine forth and deal with every circumstance. They do not need to be babied, coddled, and teased to come into alignment. They need to know who is the Commanding Presence. Will it be the carnal mind? Will it be the human desires? Will it be the agitations and the anger of the emotional body turned upside down? Or will it be the arrows of the thoughts of the Mind of God piercing through the darkness and awakening the Flame upon the Altar of the Heart, commanding it to unfurl, to shine forth the Light, the God Direction, the wherewithal and the Divine Intent of the Will of God in every circumstance?

Now, when there is seeming quiet about you, is the time to engage in the training so that when the human vehicles that are your temple are called to perform more than ordinary feats, that temple will be so filled with the Presence of God, you will be ready. And it matters not if anyone else knows that you are ready. You will know you are ready. For the Mighty I AM Presence will give you Strength, and you will have the Armor of the Lord in the Will of God. You will have the Purity upon the Altar of your Heart. And you will have the Wisdom to know when to move, when to stay, when to speak, when to not, when to engage, and when to hold in poise, waiting upon the Lord.

The booklet that you have been given filled with Affirmations, Decrees, Poems from the Heart of God is the road map for the race you are to run. They give you the training to infuse the vehicles of consciousness that you wear with the Absolute, with the Cups of Light, with the understanding of what is expected of them, all the while making room in your temple for your own Mighty I AM Presence to find its welcome home on the Altar of your Heart. This, blessed hearts, can make the difference of a civilization that continues on, that rights its course and begins to flourish once more.

Throughout the coming cycle, we will be taking up with you all of the nuances that you should look for, all of the signs that will expose the unreality, the lie, and allow you to have a sharper sword of Christ Discrimination to pierce through your own unreality that still remains. Then you will not be caught in the web of the lie but will be the champion of the Truth, the defender of the Faith, and you will hold high the Will of God for the Earth.

Do not think that we sound a tone of doom and gloom. We come with the understanding that when there are those in embodiment that have been readied for their mission, they will act in accordance with the Will of God, and they will play their part upon the screen of life. They will run the race and be God Victorious at the close of that lifetime; and the Earth will be better off that each one has come into incarnation in this cycle, has lived their best, their highest good, has cleared away the cobwebs of unreality and put on the garment of the Truth of God Reality.

Blessed hearts, uphold the Truth of the Consciousness of God that you have learned from this Altar. And as sure as I stand here, at the close of this incarnation, you will be met by one or more of the Masters, most assuredly by the Angels, and they will take you by the hand, guiding you into your Glory. This I, Morya El, promise you. There is no loss when you make that final transition into the Octaves of Light. Though you are missed, nonetheless, there is the beginning of a new cycle, just as you, each one, have begun over and over since your first incarnation until now. You stand in the midst of Angels all about you to prompt you, assist you, to guide you to those open doors that are necessary for you to run through on your race.

I trust that those who hear this Address will pour over every word, that they will underline and jot in the margins how each aspect of my instruction is interpreted by their own consciousness; and time and again, they will get their notes out and rehearse them over and over again, rereading the original text and making those adjustments to their initial insights. For lo and behold, more shall be revealed into the outer consciousness than was immediately present in the first reading, the first hearing, the first inception of my Consciousness and my Address.

Do not stop training, for it is that training, blessed hearts, that will lead you into the fullness of your Victory. And at the close of this lifetime, you will be greeted with the laurel wreath, signifying that you have won the race in accordance with the Will of God. I trust, blessed hearts, that I have made my point clear; for it was my intent that you not read anything into my address that I did not intend. The Darjeeling Council has spoken, and you are the beneficiary of their combined Wisdom for the era and for the time.

Let your Heart Flame open wide to receive the fullness of all that is revealed to you by the Mighty I AM Presence and by my Flame. Then go! Run the race of your life, taking the Hand of the Presence of God; and as sure as that firm clasp holds you tethered to the Heart, the Consciousness, and the Momentum of your Mighty I AM Presence, you will know the Presence of God is anchored in the Earth this day through your lifestream.
