THE ASCENDING CONE OF POWER

As the Elohim of Purity, We, Purity and Astrea, stand in the center of the course of the whirling action of Omega's Heart and draw all vestiges of unreality into this Flame. As Our Circle and Sword of Blue Flame goes forth, know that Purity will reign at the conclusion of Our Cycle. If that Purity can be maintained by those who are in embodiment for only one moment of a twenty-four hour cycle, We will have completed a great task indeed! For there is so much prevalent in the land that is a scourge upon the body consciousness of the Sons and Daughters of God.

Perhaps you have lived in splendid isolation for a time — not recognizing the degree of degradation to which so many groups of lifestreams as well as countries have gravitated — and perhaps this is a blessing for your lifestream. Trust Us when We report that much of the intense Purification needed for the Earth has been facilitated by your anchoring of the Sacred Fire of your own God Presence and of the Ascended and Cosmic Beings so that there can be a greater clearance of the mortal debris.

Conditions in the astral plane used to be Our greatest concern. Now it is the human consciousness in physical embodiment. For astral horrors are finding far too many willing participants eager to revolve all manner of degradations against the pure, unsullied Body Consciousness of God.

O Blessed Hearts, how your Calls have already achieved great surcease in the land! Not merely for yourselves, but for the staying of cataclysm in far-off countries connected not by borders, but by the consciousness of the Heart Flames of the Sons and Daughters of God. You are all knitted together across the Earth, and for this reason, you cannot afford to disregard worldly affairs in far-off lands. You must maintain sufficient awareness of world events to make the proper Calls, to give the weight and Power of your Decrees, Affirmations, and prayers to render the necessary assistance to those in need around the world.

Consider for a moment what other assembly upon the Earth, outside the Torch Bearers, is going to bring about such effective change in the circumstances of the Earth? Is it a political body? Is it a social group? Are there other religious congregations in the land capable of calling forth the Power of God and unleashing the Rays of God Consciousness from a God Presence they deny even exists? Who else is there to call the Ascended Masters and Cosmic Beings by name, sending Us into the fray to consume by the Violet Flame, the Ruby Ray Action, the White Fire of Purity, all that is unlike the Consciousness of God? Others such as you do not exist, Blessed Hearts, though they may accomplish much good in their own right. And to this end, We are most grateful.

Consider the importance of these instructions that you have received. How you have been galvanized with your consciousness into the Heart of your own God Presence to put on that Garment of the Lord that is the Shield of Protection and the Sword of Truth that will enable you to consciously direct your Calls to the Heart of God in Its specialized God Qualities. To move into action. To be that staying hand of the Power of God. To assist those who know not how to call for themselves — utilizing the power of the throat chakra, utilizing the visualization of the third eye, utilizing the power of meditation that you have learned, galvanizing your consciousness to that single-pointed intensity, and then standing in full Faith, knowing your Mighty I AM Presence is answering your every Call instantly!

You, Blessed Hearts, are the very lifestreams that the Cosmic Councils look to, for you have the clarity within your consciousness, the Purity in your consciousness, the Love in your consciousness to make the difference. Yes, there are many across the land who love intently their fellow man, would give every last farthing to help, and many do.

But is that enough to hold the balance for the Earth? Do they have the correct understanding or the spiritual tools with which to really accomplish the fullness of the task, absent what I have just described?

You, Blessed Hearts, understand what is required of you to discipline these outer vehicles so that you can have the Purity to know your Mighty I AM Presence right where you are, to have the Garment of the Christic Fire of the Holy Christ Presence wrapped about you, unfurling the banner of your Threefold Flame to infuse that Garment and having enough Love to strive, to continue to strive, and to strive again. Though you are still learning how to work with the Rays of God Consciousness in your own vehicles, you nonetheless are already proving the Law! And it is not merely benefiting your own life. Even the neophyte is able to accomplish great work on the world scene because the Mighty I AM Presence of each lifestream is far more than you have begun to realize.

Each Presence has an Attainment within their own Causal Body Momentum that is great. Each Electronic Body has the Fullness of the God Consciousness to send the Light Rays out to touch every part of life. Is this not reason enough to rejoice in the Power of God entering into your life? Is this not enough to allow you the fullness of the transfer of Power, even to the very cells of your physical body, so that you can be the conductor of the Light of God, the Power of God, the cohesive Action of the Love of God into the physical Earth body to set in motion, not only in the spiritual centers of your own chakras, but to set in motion the spinning action of the Earth to align itself on its spiritual axis once more? When this happens, it will open the door to the whirling Ascending Cone of Power that will lift each one vertically into the Heart of the Great Central Sun, as the Earth responds sufficiently to the momentum of the Sons and Daughters of God.

This, Blessed Hearts, is the purpose of galvanizing Hearts together! So that Purity's Light can bring about greater good for all. Those would-be saviors who style themselves an island on some far distant shore of humanity, thinking surely they are accomplishing great work — their contribution is small in comparison to that of this band of Brothers and Sisters of Light who have come together under the canopy of The Temple of The Presence of God.

Blessed Ones, the inevitable disillusionment and failure that befalls so many who have striven within their traditional religious pursuits stems from the lack of Purity in the focus of their attention. There was not the goal-fittedness of their life anchored in the Consciousness of the Mighty

I AM Presence, disseminated to each of their vehicles of consciousness. There was not the ability to keep out the astral incursion of psychic energy that can befall those who have never been trained or empowered to push their ascent all the way through the astral and psychic planes into the Higher Octaves of their own God Presence and know that that is where their Life is! That is the Source of every Good and Perfect Life Expression! Not lifestreams merely toying with mortal diversions that facilitate and tantalize, swelling personalities with spiritual pride, or inflating egos touting they have arrived when they have not. It is a backward disintegration into the same dreary unreality that has been reoccurring since the beginning of the fall of mankind from Grace and Truth.

Blessed Hearts, the Earth has a glorious future to behold, and We would not have you focus too much of your attention on the ills of the world and not realize the glorious Divinely Ordained future for the Earth. For in that is your Hope. In that is the possibility of lasting change for good because you are able to hold the Vision for a Golden Age for the Earth! You are able to build a momentum sufficient to reach that Golden Age. There is enough Purity in your consciousness because you have loved God enough and cared enough about the Truth of His Presence to make the difference for the Earth.

Do you suppose that within your exalted consciousness there was room for even one selfish thought or impulse of self-aggrandizement when you began your journey as the glorious I AM Presence moving through the Realms of the Causal Body around the Great Central Sun? Or when your Presence moved on into other dimensions to learn, to become masterful, to gain the attainment required to even take your first incarnation in the Earth? Assuredly not. For if anything, Blessed Ones, you were filled with devotion to the Allness of God for the opportunity to do more, to become more, to establish more of God throughout His vast Creation.

Do not think for one moment that even your Devotions before your altars daily are merely for your own Ascension, though you keep the goal of your Ascension in mind. They are establishing the Ascension Current by the outward penetration, the circumference of your momentum of Light as it pulsates out and in with precision. As you become masterful with your Calls, you are able to expand the Fire in your own life, to expand your own Heart's Light as it ripples out — and as I have described before — connects with other Heart Flames of like mind, like energy, like vibration, and of common goals. This expansion continues to elevate the consciousness of all whom it contacts.

Whereas the chakras have been quiescent before, the precision of this Ascending Current engenders both a spinning action and a vertical ascent through the hub of each center, creating an upraised ascent to the Heart of your own God Presence. This is the secret of connecting with the Mighty I AM Presence. When there is enough of the Mother Light flowing through your chakras to right the axis of your own spiritual life force, you have each of these spiritual centers knitted together that allow the elevating of your consciousness to the Presence, and yes, the release of the God Power that is concentrated there.

It goes without saying, for this action to occur, it requires great discipline in your vehicles. Your mind cannot be wandering, flitting about as an unruly child only beginning to learn God Control over its members. You must exert God Control over your mind. You cannot have an emotional body that is unruly, undisciplined, filled with all manner of chaos, desperation, anxiety, agitation — for that is exactly the turgid energy that will feed into every thought and feeling, every effort that you make while in the grip of such a constant malaise.

Do you not begin to see, Blessed Hearts, that this unfortunate condition is like trying to look through the eyes while all the lenses of perception are constantly moving, shifting, not allowing you to see or focus until you have aligned and cleansed the lenses sufficiently to restore the Vision of God in all of Its Perfection and Purity. Wherever your gaze lands, your life flows. Have you not realized that not one of your four lower bodies works independent of the unified response and qualification of all the others? Though there may be a great delineation between these various expressions of consciousness that does not allow for the co-mingling of the elemental forces as they are utilized by the outer consciousness, there is always a unified interaction taking place within the core of one's being, moving straightway through the spiritual centers that knits together all these four bodies into one common expression. They must then rise up to become the one common Heart of the Presence, the one common Mind of God, the one common Voice that proclaims: "God is in the Earth; God is in your life; and God is here to stay!" And is not this attainment worth every seeming inconvenience? And I say seeming — because it is relative to every lifestream. What is difficult for one will be easy for another. What is painful for one will be bliss for another.

Then as the Power of God is transferred to you, you will know it to be so, for you will come to that point in your striving where there is nothing but the effortless Momentum of the Light going forth. Perhaps you have already experienced this when giving your Calls before the altar. For you reach a point of acceleration when you are so charged with the Light that you are no longer the decreer; you are no longer the doer; but the Light is establishing Its own Momentum, dynamics, and rhythm.

This is why We train most carefully those who would lead others in Decrees. This service requires more than a booming voice or sense of rhythm. There are certain principles of Cosmic Law that must be evident such as the nature of the content in each leader's lens of consciousness, which likewise will be magnified by the Light released by the entire group giving the Calls. Thus you are charged by Us to always maintain Purity of consciousness when you lead or conduct any type of Service in the Light at The Temple. You must be the one to know if there is sufficient Purity and Harmony, if there is enough Peace in your world that you may serve as the pure lens to transfer the Christic Fire.

Have you not begun to notice that with the coming of each Elohim there is the foreshadowing of the next God Quality? That is because each Elohim on the Seven Rays of God Consciousness are also masterful on all the Seven Rays! And We understand this principle of the unified action of the One Voice of the One Spiritual Body of the One Individualization of The One God.

And this is why you must never become so rigid or fanatical in your own consciousness as to eliminate the possibilities of what your God Presence would have you accomplish. For we have seen time and time again when the Archetypal Pattern of the Divine Plan for a given embodiment comes forth for a lifestream, that many desire to hold so tightly to their favorite Ray's Momentum already garnered in previous lifetimes — where they are already masterful and at ease — that they reject the obligatory striving in those areas of added proficiency that are the Divine Plan for the present lifetime in order to build upon their previous, well-established momentum.

Therefore, do not be afraid to try your hand in a new area of creativity or to embrace major change within your own life that is inspired on your Heart — not a change fashioned out of the unreality of a lazy mind or a bored existence, but a prompting that remains as a pressure of Light when you apply the Consciousness of Illumination's Flame to that pressure, and it still makes sense. And your Heart reports back to you the pure logic of your Christ Mind, prompting you to take up an area where you must strive. All the while not forsaking your other masteries; not forsaking your established attainments on any level that has been outpictured in this incarnation by your own Holy Christ Presence for you to maintain, but building upon them.

Do not think for one moment because you are getting on in earthly years that surely you no longer need to perfect other talents. That might be a mistake. You are as youthful as the supple nature of your own vehicles of consciousness in their capacity to respond to the Mind of God, the Heart, the Will, the Power of God! Mortal consciousness accepts the lie that once you reach a certain age there is such rigidity of mind that you can no longer be taught. Know that firing the consciousness with the Purity of the White Fire Core of the Mother Light will allow room for Illumination to take its rightful place as an Action of Light that is the Divine Pattern acting in your mind in this physical octave, functioning as a Fiery Engram of the Ideals impregnated by the Mind of God.

But if you lack the desire for Purity, thinking surely you are born of the flesh, and flesh cannot be filled with Light, that condition arcs back to antiquity and the dark ages, not the reality of the New World filled with the expanded awareness of who you are as your Presence in Action.

We have come on the Current of Omega with Our Instruction so that you might have a greater appreciation for how to maintain Purity within your own life, Purity within your own world, Purity within all of your creations.

The cycles of Purity's Ray and the Circle and Sword of Astrea will continue to perform the clearance work, stripping away the debris of mortal thought and feeling from the consciousness of the Sons and Daughters of God. So long as you continue to make the Calls to your Mighty I AM Presence, to the Hierarchy of Light, to Elohim, We will honor them. We, the Elohim, are resolute and determined to fulfill the Fiery Destiny of Our God Realization for the Earth.

We stand in a Pillar of White Fire of the Pure Action of the Mother Light. We are Elohim, Purity and Astrea.
