Thoughtform-of-the-Year 2005

Blessed Ones of my Heart,

I embrace you, holding you fast to God's bosom, encouraging you to instill within your own consciousness the God Qualities and all that issues from them. For you, Blessed Ones, are the chosen ones. You have come under the guidance and tutelage of the I AM. You have embraced the understanding of the Christ and of the Buddha. You have opened your Hearts to receive Lord Maitreya in the Great Initiations that will guide you into your Victory.

Reside within the Family of God

When I speak of the chosen ones, I include all who have a Threelfold Flame upon the Altar of their Heart and are part of this great Family of God. I know well that there are many lines of division that rise up to separate you one from another, oft times creating such havoc and turmoil that you, Beloved, become so very isolated, not desiring to continue to try, to strive, or to move within that Family.

But this is not the way of the Christ or of the Buddha. This is the way of one who is living in duality, not within the all-inclusive Body of God. For it is here, Beloved, within this One Body, that you can realize all you desire. This desiring is not born of flesh, but of the Heart of your own God Presence. The desiring of God, as the Will of God through you, establishes a greater thrust into the world of form.

Perhaps you have thought that the Path is too difficult and that you will put off to another day entertaining the Great Currents of Light that are proffered to you by the Hand of God. But what of tomorrow? Will you be prepared? Will you be ready to receive the Gifts of God? Or will you be in another state of confusion, procrastination and all manner of dalliance with your present state?

You Are Not Alone

As the Lord of the World, it comes within my purview and awareness whenever Action is required to enable the Sons and Daughters of God to continue to advance in consciousness. Many times you may think that you are entirely alone, going through initiations and cycles that, surely, only you are experiencing. But, Blessed Ones, you are not alone, for across the entire planet there are those blessed Hearts experiencing many of the same initiations, tests, and cycles that you are faced with day-to-day.

I bring this to your conscious awareness so that you will have a greater sense of belonging to the Family of God, not considering for one moment that you are singled out with some great burden that another surely has never experienced. For each one, regardless of the initiation and the cycle, the burden and the weight that you experience is contingent upon your attainment and your ability to hold the Light, to meet the challenge, and to pass the initiation victoriously. So to each one it is a great endeavor.

Never consider for a moment that another's struggle is beneath your own, for you know not the challenge, the karma, the cycles to unfold in that lifestream. When you place your attention upon your own Christhood, establishing the Peace of the Buddha within your temple, you are able to keep the watch, holding the balance for that one in need. When you build a momentum sufficient trigger the release of your Causal Body, the expansion of your assistance can become global in scope, and even Cosmic for some, where there is the attainment sufficient to connect with God in the Great Central Sun.

Your God Presence Is Not Limited

Oh yes, this Central Sun may seem far distant, farther than you could imagine is within the capability of the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart. But what you have not perceived within your consciousness is that the I AM Presence, the Allness of your own God Presence, is not limited. It is only the finite mind that is limited. This temporal consciousness that has taken up residence in your body temple is a vehicle to be used by your God Presence. Through this vehicle, the Fire is intended to scintillate and send through the synapses of the mind the conscious awareness of God in all aspects of life. Then the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart will leap in joy as it receives the blessings from the Heart of your own God Presence.

This action, Beloved, represents the establishment of your vehicle of Christhood. Oh yes, there are those who would think that the Buddha may speak only of the Path of the Buddha and the fulfilling of the Eightfold Path to Enlightenment. Do not limit the Consciousness of the Lord of the World, for it is all-embracing of each of the Sons and Daughters of God and the mastery that comes forth through the Ascended Masters and Cosmic Beings who serve you, who assist you, who teach you.

Since the coming forth of Beloved Sanat Kumara and the establishment of Shamballa, we have all known a greater Abundance of the Light of God, not merely raining down in an impersonal fashion, but in the very personal, intimate and close touch of God.

*Attunement with Your Own Heart Flame
Enables Greater Responsiveness to the Masters*

When we step forth through the veil, sending the conscious awareness of our own Flame of God into your midst, we know every time a Heart responds, and on the instant there is the understanding and the receptivity to the Light that has gone forth. As you develop the attainment of sensitivity to your own Heart Flame, you will likewise understand and be responsive to the Heart of the Ascended Ones and to the Heart of every lifestream in embodiment who is in need, for the Heart is being trained to expand, to move through your consciousness, to scintillate energy through the emotional body under the God Control of the Threefold Flame, establishing Peace in the body so that when you elect to attend to the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart, there is sufficient Strength within the physical body to allow the current of Light to move through you.

This process of which I speak prepares you for greater Light, more opportunity, and the expanded blessings that can be bestowed upon you. When those blessings are used wisely, not squandered away, not hidden in a closet, not dashed upon the rock, then, Blessed Ones, the gifts you receive are expanded, and you will find the multiplication of your talents, for you will have used that which was given graciously, mercifully, and wisely.

Know well, Beloved, that each time you allow your consciousness to leap to the awareness of your own God Presence, the Garment of your Holy Christ Self envelops you. There is a sense of knowing that all is well, that you have maintained the conscious connection, allowing your God Presence to see to your every need. This is the great pleasure and desire of your God Presence.

Put All Feelings of Unworthiness into the Flame

Perhaps you have not felt worthy to receive those blessings. But in that very unworthiness, you put off the Light that you desire. Let the shackles of unworthiness be broken, and let the Faith of the Heart, as of a little child, leap into the Heart of the I AM and receive the comfort, the healing, the wholeness that only come from your God Presence.

Oh there are those who masquerade, thinking that they are God's gift to life and that surely their intellect, their ego, paraded as pseudo-talent, is a blessing for all. But any talent, any attainment, any creativity that is not charged by the Light of your God Presence and held to the Perfection of that Presence as it goes forth is not worthy and should go into the Flame and be no more. This is the standard that you, as a Son or Daughter of God, should hold to in every creative endeavor, in every thought, word and deed.

Understand Your Heritage and the True Meaning of Life

I trust that my release of Light and the Instruction from my Heart is being impressed upon your own Heart Flame as a record to remind you in those times and cycles when you forget, when the pressures of the world's negativity keep you from remembering the Office and Holy Estate of your Divine Inheritance.

You are so blessed. Be grateful for that which is given to you, and you will begin to see what God has in store for you — for the mere existence within the body as an incarnate lifestream is not living at all. When the Life Force of your God Presence is consciously moving through you, when you consciously command that Life, when you take control over the emotional body, over the lesser vehicles in all of their forms of rebellion, you then begin to understand the true meaning of life.

Sin, disease, death and old age are the temporal, finite result of human creation. They are the maya and illusion that would keep you from expressing the Office of your Christhood. Put away the old ideas that you were born in sin and in sin you remain, for you were born of the Heart of God. You embody the Heart of God. And you are becoming more of God each day. Allow this to be the conscious awareness that you hold fast to. Keep your attention upon the Light of God so that no thing can encroach upon the Perfection that streams forth from your own Heart Flame.

The Thoughtform of 2005: The White Garment of Your Christhood

Having given you this Instruction, the time has come to receive from the Great Silent Watcher the Thoughtform-of-the-Year. This Thoughtform enables you to hold within your conscious awareness the collective plan as sent forth from the Heart of God for his Children, allowing for the expansion of consciousness in unison, as one great tone that reverberates throughout the Earth body.

The Thoughtform is handed to me, wrapped within the most magnificent golden-hued cloth, tied together with a ribbon that is spun out of the most self-luminous, scintillating fabric, representative of the White Light of the Mother Flame. As I untie the ribbon, the White Light of the Mother Flame begins to flow, moving in, through and around the Earth body as a Cosmic Dance of Light. While this magnificent display of Cosmic Light continues on, the opening of the gold wrapping reveals to each one within their Heart a White Garment. For some, this Garment will be so refined that its touch is as soft as the softest velvet you could imagine, to others as smooth as the finest silk, to others the purest white linen that could be donned.

This Garment is one that you will continue to weave through the Virtues of your Christhood. It is to remind you of its own inherent Purity and also of the Purity that comes forth when you are in the state of Consciousness of your Holy Christ Self. This precious Garment you are to don on the most Holy Days, for on those days you will desire to have only the Perfection of the Mantle of your Christhood about you, so that you might bend the knee before the Altar of God in the Purity of the White Light of the Mother.

Then the dancing ribbon of White Light that is moving through the land will swirl about your Garment of Light, magnifying the Mother Flame within you and establishing a Flame that draws you into a closer awareness of your own God Presence. You will desire to wear your White Garment on those occasions when you are in a state of travail or struggle, for it will remind you of your True Identity, galvanizing the inner Strength required to move through that cycle. For many times the perception of the mind and how you approach a situation makes all the difference in the ability of your Christ Self to work through you to the effect the right outcome.

So when you are having a difficult time, having received this blessed Garment at inner levels, you may put on the Garment as close to the proximity of your awareness that you can imagine and allow it to soothe the nerve endings, to quiet the emotional body, to give Strength to the Flame of God, to leap into response to all things that require the attention of your Flame.

Your White Garment Exists at Inner Levels

Blessed Ones, the White Light of the Christic Garment which you have received, not only in your consciousness but in reality at inner levels, is there for you to appropriate, to become, to move within the Body of God, understanding that this Purity will allow you to enter into the Holy of Holies of your own God Presence and, ultimately, the Heart of God in the Great Central Sun.

Bask in the glow of this Thoughtform-of-the-Year and let it be the Garment that carries you into the Ascension. Then the Electronic Body of your own God Presence will draw that Christic Garment into the Oneness of the God Flame. The Garment then expands and scintillates with the greater Light, for it has taken on the sunburst of the radiance of your own Mighty I AM Presence. Oh, what a glorious display when the Mighty I AM calls Home the incarnate lifestream in the Ascension!

Oh to part the veil for you that you might experience even one lifestream taking their Ascension, and then another, and another, until the record is so etched in your consciousness that you surely know you are destined for that great event.

My blessings to you in the estate of your Christhood. Receive my Peace, my Compassion, and my Love. My unbroken meditation is that each of you may realize fully the most glorious life under the canopy of the Family of God and be at Peace in the Buddha.
