Thoughtform for the Year 2013

In the Buddha, commend you for your Heart's Love for God. For it does not always come easily to everyone. Many times, Love is foreign to the outer vehicles; and thus, the Heart having been closed for want of Love by the jailor of the outer vehicles, there is the necessity to rehearse in the outer mind what would break down those barriers.

Far too many think that Love must come from another lifestream — a parent, a sibling, a spouse, a friend. Albeit that love is always wonderful to embrace, the first Love that must be realized is the Love of God, for that is the Love that burns upon the Altar of one's Heart. Its free outpouring from the Heart allows the Allness of God to impart more Love into one's life, setting in motion a magnet that is irresistible, which in turn draws forth more of that God Love from every other Source within the Body of God into close proximity with one's own loving Heart.

Why is this important for you to know, on this, the night when you bid farewell to the previous year — its energies, its comings and goings, its endless turmoils in the Earth? You are required to draw forth from your own Heart Flame sufficient Love to carry you into the New Year; enough Love to wash away any energies unlike the pure Love of God, any disappointments; putting into the Flame your karmic debts, calling upon the Law of Forgiveness by the Love of God and having your garments washed clean in the Blood of that All Consuming Love; giving you instead a renewed sense of well-being and anticipation of what is to come forth by the Hand of God as new opportunity, just cresting on the horizon, greeting your waiting Heart Flame; so that you might embrace that opportunity, create in that opportunity, become more of God by the multiplication of the Heart Flame because of your preparation to meet that new opportunity.

As you come to know and internalize all that your God Presence has prepared for you, you will cultivate a heightened appreciation of how important it is to have the Flames upon the Altar of your Heart ablaze with anticipation, Holy Purpose, Divine Intent!

I know each Son and Daughter of God intimately. For I touch the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart, breathing upon it with my own Heart Flame; so that as there are those days when you need reinforcement, renewed Courage, greater Strength, clarity of Vision, then, blessed ones, I AM there.

It is my Joy and my Office as Lord of the World to fan the Flames of your own Heart so that you will not miss one opportunity — if you are attentive! For after all, it is most easy to blunder along life's way, not giving the focus of your attention to the many signposts that would give you a clear understanding of what is right, what should be shunned, what is the full Path that you should embrace, what is divinely intended for you.

It seems as though it has been a long time since we have talked in this manner. I have missed our talks, when you would come and sit beside me in the lotus posture and perhaps not an audible word would be spoken, but you would know the Teaching and the Instruction that I would give. How can this possibly take place if there is not time in your day set aside to engage in such Communion? You are far too busy. God requires more time of you — more attention of your Heart Flame, more Communion at the level of the Christ Consciousness — so that when you enter into the Buddhic Realm, you are Home!

With sufficient attentiveness you will not need to scurry to find your place, your vibration, your clarity, your sense of purpose. For when there is an appointed cycle in which you engage with the Most High, you discover the Holy Angels have already been there preparing the place before you. The atmosphere is charged with Light! The Purity within the atmosphere is great indeed. You are able to perceive the inner Voice of your own God Presence, imparted to you by your Heart Flame as it transmits the Mind of God, kissing the very consciousness of your outer vehicles, so that in the stillness, in that glorious Bliss, there exists God's greatest pleasure: to enter into the Communion of Love with you.

So can you see, blessed hearts, if you were to go through an entire life with your Heart Flame shuttered and closed off from God, merely moving through your day by the brute force of outer will, by the conjuring of your own outer mind, by the social interaction of energy directed horizontally, to and fro with other human beings, what a shadowed existence that would be. Can you not begin to appreciate how great is the necessity in life to maintain an open Heart, to commune with God, and to constantly strive to elevate your vibration into the Oneness of God?

Throughout the previous year, there were many caught in a vortex of anxiety, human questioning, much pain. So much so, that for the collective whole of the Body of God upon the Earth, I, Gautama, was required to fulfill an even greater role with my Heart Flame, making up the balance of Light for the Earth. This does not mean that the faithful devotees were lax in their role, in their endeavors. But when you consider the great numbers of mankind in comparison to the Body of the Torch Bearers of The Temple and those devotees of Divine Intent focused upon God, you can understand how, when great turmoil reverberates in the Earth, there is the requirement for the Forces of Heaven to move into action and render their assistance, if the balance is to be held.

I have desired for you to have a greater appreciation of where you began in this past year so that you will have greater clarity of Vision of where you will be moving into in the New Year. Each year, the Great Silent Watcher brings forth a Thoughtform for the collective whole of the Body of God to hold in the forefront of their consciousness. It contains a Form, a Dimension of Consciousness, and a Charge of Light which each disciple can use to pattern his own energies, his creative endeavors, all the while holding to the Thoughtform as that Divine Blueprint and collective Keynote of the Brotherhood designed to more greatly assist the Sons and Daughters of God upon Earth.

As I receive the Scroll from the Great Silent Watcher, there is a glorious smile expressed by all who stand surrounding this event in the Octaves of Light. It is as though, on the instant, seeing the Scroll, they already know its intent! Of course, you ask: "What could it be? Quickly, tell us!"

If I must,

Within the Scroll are written these words emblazoned in golden letters:

"You Are God!
God Is Where You Are!
All Are Coming Into The Golden Age!"

Accompanying this Thoughtform are many Angels standing round about, waiting to carry these emblazoned letters of gold far and wide across the Earth; so that at the level of the Divine Consciousness of each one's Presence, there is the impetus of the Charge of Lightning from the Great Central Sun to impress the God Conscious Fiat behind these words upon the consciousness of mankind.

There are many who will hear these words, even read them and scoff. "How trivial, how silly," they will say, in their human ego. But they will not forget. And in those moments of quiet contemplation, they will be reminded and reflect, "What could it mean? What does this hold for me?"

Certainly, the Sons and Daughters of God that know of the Great I AM and their own Mighty I AM Presence fully appreciate each word. Many have uttered those words in Decree, in Affirmation. But it is wholly different when every Presence incarnate upon the Earth, and those between embodiments, and those who are Ascended and Cosmic Beings are all holding those Patterns of God Identity affirmed in the Thoughtform and are all holding to the Perfection of God in Action — all simultaneously — as one unified chord of a Great Symphony, emblazoning those words and the Cosmic Dimension of their Intent, anchored here and now! Not for some future time, not for some far-off world already experiencing a Golden Age, already knowing God intimately, but for this moment on the Earth that there might be the full appreciation and reinforcement of the Divine Intent of the Thoughtform reverberating throughout God's Kingdom to leaven the consciousness of mankind, to expand the Threefold Flame upon the Altar of their Heart, to embrace a new Way of Life that heretofore has seemed foreign, unachievable.

Inasmuch as the Hand of God has seen fit to proclaim it so, writing it upon the Altar of the Heart, reminding the lifestream frequently, then it must be so! And therefore, many more lifestreams will approach the Presence. If not knowing to call the Presence the "Mighty I AM," many will only refer to the Presence as God. But as you can begin to realize, in the state of affairs that the world is currently embroiled in, just that much is still a great deal. And I, Gautama, welcome every renewed sense of Communion with God for Holy Purpose!

Far and wide across the Earth many Hearts will begin to Love again, and as each Heart Flame begins to open, more Presences can awaken more Hearts to new enlightenment – not that born out of the astral plane, but born out of the Purity of God.

So as you move forward to embrace the New Year, I trust that you will hold dear this Thoughtform, tracing the words for yourself, bringing God's Energy and Fohat to each syllable as you proclaim it as the Reality of Life upon Earth!

I step aside. For one who preceded me in this Office, who is dear and close to your Heart, desires to address you.

I bow to the Flame of Sanat Kumara!

I AM,

Gautama Buddha
