I Bring the Golden Light of the Buddhic Web

As the Golden Flame of Illumination kisses your brow, activating the Flames of the Seven Mighty Elohim, you, blessed hearts, are given the opportunity to translate those God Qualities into the Five Pranic Breaths of Life that you have come to know as the elemental forces of nature that forever await the command of your Heart Flame.

In order to know the Purity of God, you must take the time, the space, and the attention required to purify the consciousness so that when you are called to act, your actions are just. When you are called to think, your thoughts are pure. When you are called to speak, your words do no harm but rather build upon your own Threefold Flame. And when you are called upon to glorify God, you set all else aside and give God your undivided attention, allowing the Love of your heart to carry you aloft, beyond the chaos, the busyness of day-to-day life, and go into that timeless realm of God Consciousness – the Buddhic Realm, the Christic Fire – that allows all the bodies you wear during your day-to-day life to receive the charge required to heal, to rest, to resurrect them in the Flame of God.

Understanding this as a mandate of life, you would embrace the Mighty I AM Presence, giving honor and glory to God for those Victories you achieve. For those Victories would not come to be, had the outer vehicles not willingly engaged with God. Had God been absent, there would not have been a Victory to proclaim. So you see, blessed hearts, all those who prattle on, celebrating a way of life absent any belief in Deity know not of what they speak. For even the small victories they attest to in their life have come to be because of their own God Presence and Threefold Flame ablaze upon the altar of their heart. Surely, the sincere students of longstanding have come to know that devotion to God is the most important aspect of life for them to attain. For stripping God out of every facet of life leaves nothingness, emptiness, and ultimately mortality.

The Light of God is all about you, waiting for your beating heart to breathe it in and to exhale it back into creation, fashioning and forming ever new avenues of life that behold God Good and affirm that God Good everywhere throughout nature. One cannot behold an action, a God Quality, or Divine Perfection in one's experience life where those qualities do not first reside within that one's own consciousness.

If you find you are unable to perceive the Love of God, then practice loving. For loving others will prime the pump of the Love Flame upon the altar of your own heart and will teach you how to receive Love from God and from all his children who walk the earth. For that is the natural estate of Being – to love and be loved in Purity. All else is born of that Love. This is why, blessed hearts, your Presence dispenses its Love right within your beating breast so you might expand that Love Flame, and all the while the Golden Flame of Illumination guides that Love into a receptive heart, thereby drawing to your lifestream every good and perfect gift according to your I AM Presence.

Meditate upon these words until you have discovered the intrinsic value of the Threefold Flame and how the purposes of your God Presence are brought to life by forging that Threefold Flame into every avenue of your life, expanding it, breathing upon it, loving it and allowing for the Fullness of God to perform the works desired by his Heart. I, Gautama, learned very early on, once I had attained the awakening of my Illumination, how to expand the pure Love of my Heart in caring for, comforting, healing all those around me. And where there is such an abundance of God Love and Illumination, there, too, is the natural desire to engage with the Will of God. Many times engaging with the Will of God is the furthest thing from the outer mind's desire. For after all, it means the human intellect must take its seat along the wall and allow the Mind of God to lead the next dance, to fully engage with the outer self, sending forth the Commanding Consciousness of the Presence and activating those areas of universal life fashioned by God and waiting to respond to his command.

Willing God into manifestation first demands exhibiting God Love on your part and then returning that Love in gratitude back to God. Illumination likewise takes its rightful place because the Presence of God also desires to engage in each detail of your life that must come to the fore. Blessed hearts, you are here in my Presence, within the sound of my Voice, because your heart has loved God sufficiently to prepare your chalice to don the garment of Purity and to ready your Heart Flame to receive my Consciousness, my Momentum, and my Love. This Communion is an important ritual, one you should not necessarily reserve for only one celebration in the year. Rather at any time, in the privacy of your own sanctuary you may call upon my Flame and re-enact my addresses so that the meditation of your Heart Flame upon this release as well as past Dictations will strike the chord of the Akashic record and re-activate the Blessings, the Teaching and Instruction, in Holy Communion.

As you have prepared for my coming, I likewise have prepared for this lovely event in the Realm of Golden Light. For the Blessing that the Lords of Karma have allowed me to share with you is the Golden Light of the Buddhic Web of Life to which your consciousness may be elevated, if not in this moment, then at some future time when you are ready. And when so elevated, you will be able to trace the fingers of Golden Light of the Mind of God sweeping along this glorious Antakharana of Light and Latticework of Golden Buddhic Substance that knits together as one all Divine Heart Flames with the Consciousness of God, the Mind of God.

Thus, the beauty of this exercise for you, comes in the certitude of knowing that you are a part of a larger family than perhaps you have thought. For not only are those brothers and sisters of Light whom you call by name a part of your family, there are the Many Sons and Many Daughters throughout the earth, all of whom share in this glorious Blessing of the Mighty I AM Presence and Flame of the Buddha. It matters not the current religious pursuits that are being practiced as to who shall receive this Blessing. For my service is rendered according to the Threefold Flame of every Heart and the Consciousness of every Mighty I AM Presence that desires to draw aside the veil and reveal, even if only for a moment, the Realm of Perfection and how glorious is the Golden Light of Illumination's Flame.

So, blessed hearts, behold the Light of God. Re-enact this ceremony as often as possible so that you might have a greater understanding of how life is to be lived. For the transfer of the Mind of God into your keeping will alert you, reveal to you, and teach you the inner mysteries that are released from this Altar. And as you internalize them, they will become your own. Cosmic Law is present everywhere throughout the life in which you are engaged. Cosmic Law is the momentum that allows you the opportunity to forge your Victories. Cosmic Law is the sure foundation which you can count on as the all-in-all of Being, the natural estate wherein your Heart Flame expands. And Cosmic Law is in the flowing forth of the Consciousness of the Mighty I AM Presence to wrap you in the Purity and Perfection of God.

Throughout the earth, there are Heart Flames looking to my Flame this day, giving honor and respect to the Flame of God, and I, the Buddha, acknowledge their hearts' devotion. They, too, will receive the Blessing that I have bestowed this night, for they have also forged communion with my heart. There are many sincere Sons and Daughters that pray to God in other guises, all the while anticipating that their God is the one and only true God. Knowing this, blessed hearts, allows you to give of the Flame of God Love to those lifestreams, for though they know not the name and oftentimes not the vibration, they think they are engaging in an activity that is true and just. In time they, too, will have the awakening of the Light of Illumination's Flame, but perhaps it will have to wait to another cycle when they are truly ready.

I speak of this so you will not discount the sincerity of the many slumbering Heart Flames across the Earth, even when subdued in delusion, maya, confusion. At some point along the Path they, too, will awaken to the Light of God and know as you know. It is a blessing that they are galvanized into some genuine religious pursuit, for between incarnations there is opportunity for their God Presence to call to the Lords of Karma to assist them by introducing them to our Retreats in the Etheric Octaves. Many times they can be drawn to the Etheric City and to certain inner schools and temples such as those right above this very Altar, where the Masters awaken them and teach them, so that when they reincarnate, their hearts will remember and will be so filled with Holy Purpose and Divine Intent that the natural inclination of Illumination's Flame will awaken them to their Holy Christ Presence, who will then be able to guide them along their life's journey.

O blessed hearts, throughout the world the many precious Sons and Daughters of God are valued and loved. I know each one by name. I recognize their own unique Individuality, just as I do for those of you with whom I commune frequently. Let the Love of God draw forth Illumination's Flame. Let Illumination activate the desire for the Will of God for the Holy Purpose and Divine Intent for each lifestream. I send forth the Illumination Flame of my Heart and the Light of my Attainment so that you might awaken to more of the Mind of God within you. Embrace it and make it your own.

In the Threefold Flame of God,

I AM,

Gautama Buddha

Public addresses to the Students presented in The Voice From The Temple have been prepared by the presiding Master for release in written form for our present use and for posterity.
