The Perfect Pattern of God Identity in Love!

The petals of a rose unfold ever so gently — but have you understood that at its core is great Strength, great Fire? As the Chohan of the Third Secret Ray, I, Rose of Light, command the Ruby Ray — the intensity of the Fire of God Love — to go forth and to pierce through all recalcitrance that would stop the flow of the Desire of God's Heart! For it matters not how dense, how entrenched is that misqualified substance. The Fire of the Ruby Ray, when it is released for Cosmic Purpose, for Divine Intercession, will complete the Victory!

Oh, how delicate is the process of opening your heart. For in the beginning, the heart is often timid, reserved, not sure of its purpose, given its closure for so many embodiments as a result of each one's human creation and the abuses by others leveled against the delicacy of the heart. So as you begin, ever so gently, to work with opening your heart, you will lift the veil on areas of your own consciousness that have been limiting — outworn perceptions founded upon unreality will need the light of day, as Illumination's Flame, to be released at the very first opening of the heart. Then, if there is timidity, another petal may open to allow for the Blue Flame of the Will of God to begin to fill your Chalice with the transfer of that indomitable Will of your own God Presence beginning to move through your conscious awareness. Then, just as delicately, another petal will open, and you will discover the Desire of God that has been latent there all the while, as a glorious seed waiting to burst forth as God in Action, God in the highest Ideal, God as Love.

You will find that each of the petals which you have allowed to open now support and protect one another, guiding and directing each other so that when each of these Flames begin to swirl, intertwining, they become one unified action of God Consciousness, waiting to impress upon Life, waiting to give of their Glory to move into the vastness of the World of God as the great Pranic Breaths, the Elemental Forces of Nature. For your open heart knows not just your own body temple as those Forces of Life, but it knows the vastness that streams out from the Heart of Elohim into the Great Sea of Universal Light Substance, allowing for your consciousness to hold the impression of that Activity of God firmly in its embrace. All the while, there is a Divine Purpose charged within that Substance of the Breath of God.

To become masterful with the Ruby Ray, you must learn how to discipline those vehicles of the body temple that you wear so that they will expand ever outward, absorbing greater and greater saturations of your own God Identity and carrying them all the way to the Elohim! This is how you can facilitate more of an active participation in this world of form, even with your own, oftentimes, timid heart.

Once you have understood all of the support that is given to your Heart, you are more at ease to allow the petals to continue to open, so that when they are all fully arrayed, imbuing the atmosphere about you with the sweet fragrance of your own Identity — of your own Mighty I AM Presence, having at its core the Golden Ray of Illumination's Flame, surrounded by the Element of God's Love, and at the very edge, the Blue Flame of the Will of God — all will be your perfect offering to the Mighty I AM Presence, to God in all of Life. For that open heart is the first manifestation that must come forth as you perform your alchemies in the Ruby Ray of God Consciousness. Absent this activity, there is not the chalice prepared for the Mother Light of Purity that is at the core of all of the Rays of God Consciousness to continually nourish your endeavors.

Perhaps you have, from time to time, called forth Purity, and in so doing received a certain increment of that White Light of the Mother Flame. However, the Flames on the Altar of the Heart have been unbalanced and the chalice of that Threefold Action unprepared to receive such an increment of Purity. Thus you found that it did not remain with you. It passed on through your consciousness without depositing in your own world its momentum, its Archetypal Pattern of the impression of Purity's Ray. So you struggle, trying to bring some degree of balance to each of these Rays of God Consciousness upon the heart.

This, blessed ones, is the time when you would want to have each of the petals of the heart, as the Flames of God Consciousness, begin to spin faster and faster, swirling about with an intensity that by its very action calls forth the Ruby Ray. And, as that Ruby Fire is released from your God Presence, whatever discordant substance was causing imbalance in your life and not allowing for your attainment in particular areas required for your mastery will go into the Flame and be no more.

However, the proviso is that you will allow that discord to go into the Flame. You do not hold it back because of attachment or familiarity, but you let it go. And even when you know not what is stopping your Heart Flame from performing its Perfect Work, you give the command to your Presence to send forth that Ruby Ray Action into whatever cause, effect, yes, record and memory may still reside in your life that must be consumed, and your Presence will fulfill that call.

Oh, how many students of the Light have desired to accelerate on the Path. They have heard the words Sacrifice, Service, unconditional Love, all the while their own Heart Flame is starving for Love, starving for Illumination and the Will of God; for it has long been shut away as though it was an endless winter, the snow all about, biding its time until it might be unfurled in the Sun.

You have Heart Flames that are always charged with the Light of God. The questions remain: What is the momentum that has been allowed to build within those Flames right where you are? What is the ability and the attainment that you are garnering for those Flames to unfurl into every moment of every day, every talent, and every use where they may be needed? You are most aware that when you practice any art, it is refined over time. The same is true of working with the Flames of God and allowing for the Love of God to furnish the impetus to keep you tethered to the Will of God, to the Illumination of God, and yes, to the Purity of God.

As Rose of Light, I acquired this name because of my Attainment in the Flame of Love of the Ruby Fire. It is oftentimes gentle, entreating to the delicate Heart Flame that is timid and anxious. But it is likewise intimidating to unreality. For when the Ray of the Ruby Fire begins to amass its intensity to be released by the Mighty I AM Presence or by the commanding Forces of Chamuel and Charity or of the Ascended Masters or of Elohim, opposition will run as fast and far away as it can; for it knows its time is marked, and it may not be in close proximity to the Innocent and the Holy.

Once released, this Ray goes forth, not unlike the Needle Ray Action of a laser beam that knows its target and never stops until it has reached its destination, for it carries the Consciousness of the Wisdom of God, the Will of God, the Purity of God, and the Fire of God's Love. You, blessed hearts, may trust that this Flame will only exact its redemptive qualities on unreality, negativity, and the desecration of God in Life.

Commanding the Action of the Ruby Ray comes as naturally to your Heart Flame as your physical body breathes in the oxygen about you, understanding that its Action is always the product of a chalice prepared to wield it. There is permission given for its release by your own Heart Flame, having nothing to do with the outer ego, the emotional energy, or the physical brute force of mortal will. It has everything to do with the quality and the quantity of the Sacred Fire built up upon the Altar of your Heart — that quality always being the Heart Flame of the Mighty I AM Presence; that quantity always being the momentum of your use of the Flames of God — and the preparation of your chalice for its unfolding into the Divine Nature of your Christhood.

Let your heart be the heart of the perfect rose that emulates my Heart Flame, as a balanced action of Love, Wisdom, and Power, calling forth the Purity of the White Light of the Mother Flame and anchored in a disciplined Chalice of your vehicles of consciousness to bring forth the Perfect Pattern of God Identity in Love.

Chamuel and Charity have been present throughout this Conclave — one stationed at the front of each side of this platform, guarding the Altar and protecting you with the Ruby Fire of their Angelic Momentum. They will continue this Protection throughout the coming week of study on the Flames of God as the Christ. Take this, the opportunity to put into the Flame those areas of consciousness in your own world that you know are limiting the Action of the Rose of your own Heart.

I, Rose of Light, commend you to the Heart of God for your Perfect Love to command.

Rose of Light
