

Acknowledge the Divine Providence of your Lifestream!

When you approach the Most High with the Consciousness of your own Christ Mind, you prepare your vehicles so that when the return current of the Charge of Light of the Presence of God is bestowed upon you, you have the Fortitude, the Courage, but most of all the Faith to receive it!

In the Intonation of Akasha, I, Surya, send forth my Body Consciousness to intone the Realization, the Actualization of God, so that you, in elevating your consciousness, may more easily enter into the Perfection and Purity of God.

As you begin to don the Garments of the Christ Light in, through, and around your outer vehicles of consciousness, you become more aware that there are other levels of God Awareness that you can participate in. But if one does not have the natural hunger for God and somehow decides that worldly existence is all there is to life, then you can begin to see, blessed ones, why so many Sons and Daughters of God vested with limited Light and Momentum of certain Virtues of the Christ do not go beyond their present limited levels of attainment. And you ask, "Why? Why is there not a greater hunger for God?" Could it be because those of other religious persuasions have languished so long at those levels, not having been taught that there is more to God and his Body Consciousness that can be drawn into Life, into Light, into Love?

You, the Torch Bearers, have a great understanding of the planes of consciousness and their respective elements that make up your body temple, thereby facilitating the outpicturing of more of the Fabric of God Reality in these planes — more to live and breathe, to create, to express, to motivate, and allowing you to be more and more intimately in the Presence of God. Each of these vehicles, you have understood, needs to be disciplined so that it will hold fast to the Vibration that is instilled within it by the Charge of the Christ Light, the action of the Threefold Flame of the Heart. And as that Flame begins to burn brighter and brighter, with each day's experience instilling greater Wisdom and Faith, the lifestream becomes increasingly aware that the very Presence of God has for them more to experience, more to behold, more to create by utilizing the Purity and Perfection of the very Consciousness of the Godhead, the Consciousness of The GREAT I AM!

That, blessed ones, is then the recipe for the striving of the consciousness of the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart to leap into the Electronic Body of your Mighty I AM Presence and ultimately, to make available to you the Allness of God. As you are centered in that Allness, it is most evident that the Presence has made every preparation for the very life that you live, the way your body temple responds to the Light, the healing that occurs, the Joy, the creativity that comes forth with the wise use of the Light. You become more aware that there is a Divine Purpose for all of the areas of your life, even those necessities demanding that you call forth the spirit of overcoming Victory by the wise use of all of the disciplines of the Light that you have been taught.

We seek to instill a greater understanding of why so many lifestreams upon the Earth do not rise to the level of the Christ Light, but rather continue incessantly revolving within the mass consciousness. It is because they lack the greater Wisdom, the greater Allness of God that you here engage in. Consequently, the more you engage in this Allness the greater your Christ Discerning faculties become — clarity of Vision, the keen awareness of what is the Pattern of God Reality, instead of what should not be, and what should be drawn into the realm of time and space as the Perfection of God.

As the Elohim of Akasha, it is understandable that I would desire for you to grasp mightily the ability you have within the Christ Consciousness to leap into the Realms of Akasha and appropriate all of the Goodness of the Body Consciousness of God that is provided there for you to live the life that your God Presence has held out for you in this incarnation. Oh, there are many who would like to look back at their previous incarnations and think somehow that will bring them a greater understanding of this embodiment. But, blessed ones, that is the past. What remains of that past is the untransmuted karma, but that you can deal with by giving the Invocations of the Light — transmuting it, putting it into the Flames of God, and allowing instead for the Fullness of the Patterns of your God Identity in this very moment to chart your Destiny, here and now. You need not be chained to the past any more than you should try to dredge it up. Your karma will come back for transmutation whether you know the particulars of it or not.

Let the Light perform its Perfect Work! Let your consciousness be absorbed into the Allness of God and draw upon the glorious Divine Rays of God Consciousness to move in, through, and around you — protecting you, teaching you, loving you, purifying you — giving you Vision, clarity, and Divine Abundance of Light, so that you might be in the right place in time and space with the tools, the disciplines, the Wisdom that your God Presence has desired for you so that you can accomplish all that is on the Heart of your God Presence.

That is your Divine Providence! Individually, you have your own Divine Providence that is the pressure of the Consciousness of your own God Presence that wants the very best for you and wants you to develop certain Momentums in certain Rays of God Consciousness as a necessary part of your Attainment and Mastery. Therefore put your attention upon all of the Rays of God Consciousness so that when you are Ascended you will be able to fulfill every Desire of the Heart of your Mighty I AM Presence — the Real You! All of that is already known upon the Altar of your Heart in the Flame deposited there by your Mighty I AM Presence. There are Engrams of the very Charge of your Destiny written upon the Altar of your Heart.

How will you know what is the right course, what is your Destiny? You will know, blessed ones, as you learn to follow the Divine Illumination of the Mind of God that you cultivate in your life by making room for God — establishing enough desire for God that you no longer concern yourself with the world's minutiae, with the peepings and mutterings of the riptides of human thought or the energy of the emotional body of the planet. You are concerned with charting the Divine Destiny of your Mighty I AM Presence. And this requires clarity within your consciousness.

That clarity, blessed ones, cannot be overstated in its importance to your life. Without it you may be going in fifteen different directions, never to really galvanize enough energy in the pursuit of the exact Divine Destiny that your Presence desires. How will you know when it comes to be? When that Divine Destiny begins? When you take those steps, preparations, and patterns of life that you are to engage in to prepare you for that Destiny, you will feel it within your Heart Flame! For a Charge of Light like lightning will move throughout your entire being. You will be galvanized into such a Pillar of Fire that you will know for certain that this is the right direction. If you do not get the sign sufficient to confirm it, then you take the next step available to you, and with that first step, you will know if it is the right direction. If it is not, you step back and you take the next step, and the next, until you are firmly fixed upon the Path that is chosen for you by your Presence.

The process of acknowledging the Divine Providence of your lifestream is a lifelong exercise. There will be those who will know on the instant and others who will be required to continually refine their spiritual attunement by giving the Calls to the Light of the Mighty I AM Presence, invoking the Flames of God in Purification, having the presence of mind to know to be in the right vibration at all times in one's life, so that there is not a spilling over of human consciousness constantly eroding the very Light that the Presence has given into one's keeping to be able to draw upon to have that clarity.

That is the formula for knowing the Divine Providence of your lifestream. What of the Divine Providence of the entire world or the Cosmos? You have already been taught that Cosmic Law in the macrocosm and the microcosm are one and the same. Since The GREAT I AM enters into the Fullness of Divine Providence, is that not a pressure of the Consciousness of the Allness of the Presence to send forth the Divine Pattern of all that is to be? We, the Elohim, know well what it means to enter into that pressure of the Consciousness of the Divine Providence of the Presence. All is indeed divinely orchestrated down to the most minute detail!

Does this for an Elohim rob us of our ability to create, to fashion and form life? Indeed, it does not. It adds to the glorious opportunity to multiply and magnify that which is the Divine Providence of God Almighty. The Holy of Holies is a most appropriate focus for that Divine Consciousness, for it knows only God Good. It streams forth through all of the Cosmos. Every Cosmic

Being, every Ascended Master, every Archangel and Archeia participate in that glorious ongoing Divine Celebration of God's Providential Love for all!

When you begin to understand first and foremost how glorious is your own Mighty I AM Presence as the Individualization of God, you become aware that there is even more of the Consciousness of The GREAT I AM! available to you in your I AM Presence for you to participate in. No part of Life has ever come forth without the streaming Consciousness of The GREAT I AM! in all that is God Good, all that has been built up. And even should the Pure Perfection of God that came forth initially receive miscreation by the human consciousness, still at the White Fire Core of that miscreation abides Divine Providence! When you truly understand this and have full Faith in and conviction of the Truth that is Divine Providence, then you will have the ability to draw it forth and see that Purity first and foremost consume the unreality, the miscreation, and then build and reveal the Perfection of God.

How do you suppose Cyclopea in his action of the All-Seeing Eye can work such miraculous events for and on behalf of the Sons and Daughters of God, for the Earth, for the Cosmos? It is because the All-Seeing Eye only knows God Perfection. And at the moment, the second, or millisecond that that Vision touches unreality, the unreality is consumed, revealing only the Perfection of God that is once again established at that moment of contact.

How can you draw forth this Perfection of God to make such a difference not only in your own life but in the Earth? You start with becoming the Christ, elevating the Consciousness of the Christ Light into the Mighty I AM Presence, and allowing the full Faith in the Divine Providence of the I AM to come forth and perform the Perfect Work.

This can be accomplished, blessed hearts, for the one who has become a sincere student of the Mighty I AM Presence — one who is not concerned about what the world thinks of them; one who is not driven by fear or loss; one who is not filled with despair and anguish. Those who are consumed with negativity, blessed ones, have no power to connect with the Charge of Light required to perform the Glory of God that is within their lifestream. There must be Fearlessness, Faith, Hope, and Charity in the Fullness of God Love so that only the Presence of God is embraced! The Goodness of God becomes the fabric of the life that you desire to live! Then you know what it means to enter into such Purity, such Holiness, such Sanctity.

We have prepared for you a Conclave where you may enter into the Holy Estate of the Divine Light of the Providence of God celebrating The GREAT I AM. Come! Let that Light fill you, charge you, direct you in the keeping of the Desire of your own God Presence and the fulfillment of the Divine Providence of your life!

I, Surya, shall continue to stand guard over your consciousness as you make your preparations — should you need my Intonation of Akasha to ring within you to remind you of your Divine Calling!

Let the Light of God prepare your path to this Altar as you prepare for the filling of your consciousness with The GREAT I AM.

Surya
