I AM here, the Light of the Cosmic Christ!

Meditate in this radiance. Now that your Heart is fully activated in the Consciousness of the Cosmic Christ, you can hear my words. You can perceive their meaning. You can act upon that which issues forth as the Will of God. And you can fulfill the Great Command according to the desire of the Mighty I AM Presence who you are.

You stepped forth proclaiming, "I AM," from the Heart of God. But you did not leave the Allness of God. For throughout all of your sojourn, you have maintained communion with that constant brooding Presence of the One God. You have acknowledged that Presence when you were brought into the awareness of Beauty, of Peace, of Love, of the magnificence of creation, of all things that carry the Divine Qualities and Vibration of the One God. This is how your heart has come to know what is true, what is just. For it recognizes the One Presence that cannot be denied. For when you have cleared your consciousness, even in these outer vehicles you wear, you have known the touch of God.

When your Presence determined to incarnate in the Earth, the Law of Octaves did not allow for the Mighty I AM in all of its Splendor, Glory, and Perfection to come into these realms without vehicles of consciousness made up of the physical as the earth body, the emotional as the water, the mental and memory as fire, the Holy Christ Presence as the air, and the Causal Body as Akasha, so that as you integrated into this world of form, you would learn firsthand to move within those Elements of Nature, the currents of God Life; how to command them to respond to the Mind of God; what was the correct desiring on your part in order for those Elemental

Forces to fashion themselves into form; and how you were to maintain the continuity of the flow of God's Consciousness in the Allness of the One God while the many octaves and planes of consciousness were seemingly so separated.

Of course, many of you already know. It is through the Heart Flame, that Heart that is the One Heart of the Mighty I AM Presence, that maintains the integrity of the Light of God in each of your vehicles of consciousness. And when there is sufficient Harmony in all of the areas of your consciousness flowing freely, moving in that Peaceful state of resonance that allows the Heart to unfurl its Threefold Flame, then, blessed ones, you have imparted to you at every moment the right course, the right action, the right word, the right thought, the right energy, the right intonation with which to move, breathe, and live in the Allness of God.

I, Maitreya, come often to remind you what is expected of you as the initiate on the Path, gaining your mastery, receiving the charge of Light daily from your own God Presence, and making yourself not merely passive, but active and worthy to receive the hand of God blessing your life, filling your life, charging it with Divine Purpose, and holding you in the firm embrace of the Presence of the Allness of God.

This is how your life is intended to be lived — contrary to the actuality of the state of affairs of many. And this is why we call you to come to this Altar frequently, without hesitation, reservation, or reluctance — so that you might be reminded of who you truly are; so that you might receive the charge of Light to wash away and consume by the Light of God any misconceptions about the Truth of your Identity; and thus, setting you back on the pathway that is the Divine Destiny that your Presence has desired for these lower vehicles, as the outer extensions of the Presence that you wear, to follow.

Never forget that your hands, your feet, your thoughts, your feeling body, every action which you undertake is intended for the glory of your God Presence. Even those who are engaged in responsibilities or professions which they may not particularly enjoy should nonetheless realize that you will move through those areas of life more seamlessly and quickly if you hold fast to the Presence of God and recognize that there are lessons to learn and mastery to gain. For your Presence has orchestrated your life to the greatest extent the Law would allow given the karmic debts that these outer vehicles have created. Why do you suppose there is such insistence that you give the Violet Flame to transmute those records? It is so you might step forth as the Christ and in that Holy Vehicle of Consciousness, take Christ Command over your life, over all of your affairs, setting in motion Divine Patterns fashioned in the Heart of your own God Presence and bringing them into fruition.

If you look about yourself and consider what are the fruits of your life, you will quickly come to the awareness of what must be changed. Perhaps outwardly you can find no way in which to execute that change; but your Presence will know, and you can enable the Presence to make every necessary change in your life that the Presence requires. Are you beginning to realize how vastly different this approach to your life is than merely brutishly forging your way through life, surviving by the wit of the outer vehicles till the next day and the next life, without any concern for your own God Presence? When you turn your life over to the Divine Presence of God that you are, learning how to be responsive to your Presence, learning what your Presence expects of you, pausing to ask yourself, "Is this what my Presence would say, would do, would exact upon the Elemental Forces of Nature?" Many times you would find that in that pause, it would be dramatically clear to you that change must occur.

After you have spent an entire lifetime — if not more than one — practicing turning your life over to the Mighty I AM Presence, you will develop the habit of no longer thinking with the human mind, feeling with the human emotions, no longer allowing the base desires of the flesh to rule your life. Instead, you will allow the Presence to orchestrate your life to rise into the Divine Estate, for you will be prepared to step forth as the Christ. You will have honed and fashioned each of your vehicles of consciousness to be disciplined to the slightest nuance of your Mighty I AM Presence.

What I have described to you is a course of study that you, as the Incarnate Son and Daughter of God, have been engaged in for many, many lifetimes. Since first stepping forth out of the Heart of the One God and proclaiming, "I AM," you have followed many diverse paths, some of which were far removed from the Divine Design that your Presence desired. Now you have made the determination to return once more to the Heart of God, to put aside the self concerns of the human ego, all of the minutiae of unreality that has no place in the Heart of God, and to have stripped away all that you thought you were. Standing before the One God, ready to be filled, you are now prepared to don the garments of your Christhood.

Some of you will know exactly what I speak of, for you have already arrived at this point. Some will desire to run in the opposite direction for fear of loss of what they have considered more important than God. But I warn you, even if you run, eventually there will come the time that you will make an aboutface and desire God to return to your life again. What remains is when your own Mighty I AM Presence will be able to prepare the pathway and opportunity for you to come this close once again.

Karma is a peculiar thing. It is not always controllable. Yes, the Karmic Board oversees a certain amount of the returning karma that comes to the Sons and Daughters of God. Surely, the Mighty I AM Presence is able to assist, but only within the confines of free will. For when you have willfully created a destructive energy of any kind in any plane of consciousness of these lower vehicles, you are required to be responsible for it. There is no mystery. It is yours. And yes, you do own it until such time as you have satisfied the debt — either, one, by transmuting with the Sacred Fire or, two, by walking through that karmic debt and working through that karma, either in the physical, the emotional, or the mental vehicles of your world. I leave the choice to you. It seems most simple to me that transmutation with the Sacred Fire would be an easier way to pay off those records of your karma. You decide each day. Yes, there has been the great Dispensation of the transmutation of ten thousand years of your karmic debt. One of the prerequisites, if you will remember, is that you maintain sufficient Violet Flame daily to transmute any karma that has ensued in the previous day so that you will not be creating any new karma and, ultimately, be able to handle any other karmic debts outside of the ten thousand years or the current day's allotment.

Karma, blessed hearts, can blindside you if you are not preparing your vehicles of consciousness to be resilient, strong, and courageous in the Light of your God Presence. If you are filled with Light and you are moving forward on the Divine Path that your Presence has elected, then you will navigate even the most treacherous waters with Victory, for you will be prepared to draw forth the Light, the attainment, and the mastery required at any moment. This, blessed hearts, is why you as the Mighty I AM Presence incarnated — so that you would master physical bodies, emotional bodies, mental bodies, memory bodies, requiring them to listen to the voice of God, charging them with the Light of God, fashioning and forming them in the creation of God. And thus, you shall draw forth into your life all that your Presence desires. Your Mighty I AM Presence is a Godhead Charioteer guiding and directing your vehicles of consciousness through the many rounds of incarnation so that you could have the mastery and attainment to create with these great Forces of Nature by issuing the Command of God and having them obey.

Oh, what a beautiful plan God has wrought for the Presence to learn how to create. Your Presence is glorious indeed and has much that it desires to bring forth. But these vehicles that you wear must be responsive for them to truly be the vehicles of God. Let your body temple forever be the Presence of God as you live, move, breathe, and become the Christ where you are. Make yourself available to the Presence, to the Ascended and Cosmic Beings, so that you might more quickly come up in vibration, in Wisdom, accelerating your vehicles of consciousness so that you may be crowned with Illumination's Flame, so that you can stream forth the Love of God, and so when the Presence desires the Power of God under the God Control of the Will of the Presence, it will be able to move mountains.

I, Maitreya, invite you to the coming Conclave of Light so that you might be touched by the hand of God, receiving it, internalizing it, and becoming that nature of the Christ for all the days of your life. Let Chamuel and Charity and their Ruby Ray Angels guide you to our doorstep so that we might receive you in God Love.
