Preparing the Chalice of Your Being

My Beloved Children,

I have come to instruct you on the preparation of the Chalice of Your Being for the coming of your Lord, your own Holy Christ Self. Most do not really know what the Chalice is. We will start at the very beginning. Understand that all begins in the Heart.

The Chalice of Your Being reflects the fullness of your Heart's Radiation of the God Qualities of your Presence. When the Heart is pure, the Chalice is crystal clear. When the Heart is caring, the Chalice is filled with Charity. When the Heart overflows with Truth, the Chalice is whole and complete. When the Heart knows Wisdom, the Heart understands how to extend the fullness of Love. The Heart knows how to guard the Chalice, how to protect it and, yet, how to extend the fullness of all that is available to flow through the Heart.

The Essence of the Heart

Beloved Ones, the essence of the Heart becomes qualified with every thought, with every feeling, with every action of your being. You weave the very fabric of the Chalice out of the color of every emotion, out of the texture of every thought, the firmness out of the Strength and the Courage of every deed. The Chalice, Beloved Ones, can only contain all of the opportunity extended to you when it is firm, strong, healed and whole. When opportunity comes into your world, you are able to hold fast to the moment. If the Heart is not prepared, the moment passes, for you were not in a state of readiness, thereby losing the opportunity.

When you place your attention upon the preparation of the Chalice, you must first decide, "Why AM I preparing the way? Are my motives selfish or for the aggrandizement of my ego?" Or is this preparation to receive the fullness of God Love from your own God Presence filled with the Grace that you would afford the Most High? To be able to prepare the right Chalice means that you set about to cultivate a loving, caring Heart. One does not wish to visit a friend when that friend does not welcome them. The same is true, Beloved Ones, of your Heart in relation to your Holy Christ Self.

Yes, there is the extension of Love of your God Presence for you that goes forth unconditionally, but only a certain amount of that Love is perceived when your Heart is closed. You must fashion the Heart so it is ready to receive at any moment. For you know not when there will be a knock at the door. It may be at a time when you would least expect it. It could well come at the midnight hour. You may think that no visitor would come at that hour, but this may be the only time when your outer world is still enough, peaceful enough, and you are attentive enough in the Listening Grace required to sense the Still, Small Voice releasing this Love into your Heart.

Your Heart Depends upon You for Its Life

In preparing the Chalice, consider the Love of a mother for her newborn child, fashioning the clothes, tending to the temperature, the surroundings, the food, the nourishment — all that is necessary for the little child who looks up into the gaze of the mother and depends upon her for all aspects of its life.

This child is like your Heart, Beloved Ones. Your Heart depends upon the decisions that you make. Your Heart depends upon the actions that you take and the thoughts that you have. Understand that your Heart requires the safekeeping worthy of the Heart of your own God Presence. Would you assault that Heart with anything less than respect, less than the Love and tenderness of a Divine Mother? I think not. Knowing the Truth of who you are, Beloved Ones, is the first step in understanding and then becoming the fullness of all that you can become. For you truly are a Son or a Daughter of the Most High, afforded the true respect of the Christ Child.

I, Mother Mary, send forth the Ray of my Heart to heal the brokenhearted. I extend the Love of my Heart to those who feel temporarily separated from the Love of their own God Presence; and to heal and mend the highway so that they will be afforded an easier passageway as they travel back to the Heart of God.

The Heart Connects All

Beloved Ones, you can extend the very Love of your Heart to those in need, just as I have extended my Love. For your Heart is connected to the Oneness of all life. Thus your Heart connects with my Heart — and my Heart connects with the Great Central Sun that nourishes all of life in the Abundance of the Love of God.

Place your attention upon the Heart and allow it to speak with the full understanding of Love, Wisdom and Power of your own God Presence. Know that you are the Christ-in-Action when you are able to connect with the pure intent of the Heart and with the Love of God. Where there are selfish motives, examine quickly where they are from and resolve where they need to go. They need to go into the Flame for many times an action of the Will of God is marred by residual increments of pride or ego still comprising that action. Therefore, call forth the Violet Transmuting Flame to transmute all of your actions, all of your daily comings and goings, that you might have the fullest opportunity to serve God in life.

The preparations of the Chalice of Your Being can only be accomplished by you. This is your task. This is your requirement for coming of age. And as you wear the Crown of Attainment and Mastery, you will understand the true maturity of the Heart. You will understand the Wisdom of extending the Love of God to all of life unconditionally.

Beloved Ones, I, Mother Mary, seal your Hearts this very day in an action of Love that will hold fast the fabric of your being long enough for you to understand how the Chalice might feel were you to complete your work victoriously. Receive my Love as you are able, for many must dissolve a great deal that is keeping them from feeling the fullness of the Love of God in their Heart. Break down the barriers, Blessed Children, and allow for the fullness of the flood of Love from your own God Presence to nourish your Heart and fill your Chalice to overflowing.

I thank you for your attention to the Love of God.

Mother Mary
