Embrace the Fire of the Heart!

Come all ye who are ready to embrace the Fire of the Heart, not merely as a smoldering ember with the promise of a future, but as the fiery furnace that comes from the Heart of God in the Great Central Sun, harnessed by the Consciousness of the Mighty I AM Presence and released into each plane of consciousness so that at every level of awareness and in every plane you might be the Firstborn Son issuing forth the edict and God Direction to be the incarnate Presence of God where you are!

Oh, there are many who give forth great adulation in verse, prose, poetry, song, and even artistic paintings drawn forth by the outer disciple. Many of their proclamations do indeed proffer the offering of their divine creativity to the Heart of God. Others embody more of the outer consciousness of their human ego, all the while proclaiming that surely all their productions reflect the Hand of God and thus must be allowed to stand the test of time and are indeed worthy to be placed upon the altar of the Most High. So where is the proper balance of the true initiate striving to give birth to the Presence of God, calling forth the intercession and assistance of the Brotherhood of Light, and then allowing for that impetus of Life to become manifest, as surely as they draw forth the Fire Breath of the Most High?

It is always hoped by us, the Teachers and Initiators along your journey, that what you will bring forth truly does warrant codifying, raising on high, and placing directly upon the Altar of your own God Presence – preserving forever that creativity with its attendant Charge of Light, with all its details and consciousness distilled from every plane of consciousness of your Being, refined in the fiery furnace, purified, and deemed worthy of the Most High.

Yes, blessed hearts, this is the culmination of the creative process every time you desire, each time there is a thought that crosses your mind, a welling up within you of emotion as the tides are stirred by the mere thought of the closeness of God and of your ability to stream forth even one detail of God Consciousness that you can bring to life and to fruition.

Many of you have already realized that your day-to-day life is a series of trials and errors. It is hoped by us that there are more trials than there are errors. For by now, you are to have learned to read the signposts along the way, discerning those areas of your life that are true, that express the reality of the Mighty I AM Presence, that reveal the Path that you are intended to walk. Surely you have come to realize that the precious Energy invested in you as this outer vehicle of consciousness you wear by your Mighty I AM Presence is intended to bear fruit of Divine Quality. Understanding all this, you meditate upon your own Heart Flame and contemplate on how to draw it forth.

Certainly with the coming of the Ascended and Cosmic Beings, standing in your midst, you have experienced the troubling of the waters by the charge of their Ascended Master Consciousness, Fire, and the Emanation of their Heart! And you have striven to keep pace with their Vibration in your day-to-day life. Then one day you face a new Initiation, one that your immediate experience base has not prepared you for, or at least you think it has not, and you are taken off guard. How will you respond? How will you internalize the instruction, how will you react? Do you have the presence of the Charge of the Mighty I AM Presence upon your own Heart Flame burning brightly and sufficient to the challenge of this Initiation?

Have no fear, O Children of the Light, for when the cycles of Initiation come to your lifestream, you are prepared and ready, whether or not you realize it. For it is the very readiness of your lifestream that draws the Initiation to you. And in addition, there is the equation of what your Divine Plan holds for this given lifetime. How does this Initiation have bearing upon the outcome of the Victory of your overall mission in life? I am most aware these are questions that you ask frequently as you weigh your decisions upon whether or not you should engage, whether or not you should speak, whether or not you should allow your energies to flow into a particular activity or direction that is presented to you.

In every case, you must rely upon the Flame on the Altar of your Heart. Therefore, you will see the wisdom in always maintaining Holy Communion with your Heart Flame. Throughout every moment of your waking hours, you are given the opportunity to drink in the Love of God, the Wisdom of God, the Power of God. And with all the varied forms of God Qualities that stream into your consciousness from your Mighty I AM Presence, you are intended to build the fabric of life, establishing a firm foundation upon the Light of God, knowing full well that you have put into the Flame all that your Presence has called to your attention and all that has remained in the recesses of your consciousness, unknown to your outer mind. Thus you clear the slate of all of the debris for that day that would taint or despoil the otherwise Perfect Mind of God imparting to you the need of the hour.

Oh, there are so many things upon the Earth that you can place your attention upon that are wonderful to behold. Certainly, you could create many things, but are they the creations your Presence desires for you? Is the creation in accord with the Path that you are to follow? The young are many times forgiven when they venture into areas of life not in keeping with their Divine Plan. And if they are initiates of longstanding, of many incarnations, we will stand close by, assisting wherever possible. But there does come that time when there has to be a parting of the ways of youthful indulgences in favor of the Consciousness of the Mighty I AM Presence, filling the mind with God Direction, putting the youth back on that firm path as was intended.

Now do not misunderstand. This is by no means license for the young people of the world to go awry, to not behold and uphold the Presence of God. But it is volunteered by me for the record so that you might have the understanding that there are those cycles of learning where tolerance is given, and then comes the new cycle of Initiation where there is less tolerance for ignoring the Truth of Cosmic Law.

O blessed hearts, you ask how to know, how to be in the Heart of God, how to establish a resonance with the Charge of God Love as the Fountain of Life of your own God Presence that will keep you firmly fixed upon the path your Mighty I AM Presence has chosen for you. You pray, you meditate, you decree from the Heart, loving God with every erg of energy of your Being, for it is only in loving that you receive love, it is only in the Sacrifice of the Heart that the Ruby Fire burns away all semblance of human creation and allows for the full measure of the pure Flame of the Heart to be right where you are, ready to respond, ready for you to touch with the fingers of the mind, to fill the emotional body as bellows blowing constantly, so that you are fully and consistently charged, riding well above the waves of the human consciousness of all mankind and living in the vibration of that Celestial Realm where your own Christ Presence communes openly, constantly with your outer mind. This, blessed hearts, is indeed an Initiation that must be garnered by every lifestream.

Oh yes, you can look around and see many who could care less to know anything of God. Certainly there is no desire to have anything given to them that is of a spiritual nature; for after all, they have all of the worldly, creature comforts they could imagine for themselves. But at some point every lifestream reaches that time, that cycle, when they must know the Presence of God, for all else has left them empty, unsatisfied. Then at the first blush of the Charge of Light, there appears such a hunger that becomes so apparent to their outer mind and emotions that they must strive to find the source of that Charge of Light. Little knowing that it is right where they are, many will travel far and wide across the earth, dipping into this pursuit or that, all the while missing the very Presence of God that is exhibited for them, offered to them to show the way that many of you have come to know as the Ascended Master Way of Life.

Putting on the Garment of the Holy Christ Presence is the work of a lifetime, of many lifetimes, and you should have patience with yourself. But in the same breath, you should have a constant striving, an earnest intent that never leaves you, to fully put on that Garment of the Lord. Oh, there are many religious pursuits across the Earth. Many tout that they have the answer; many say you must do this, you must do that in order to know God. As the one who has initiated the true world religions that uphold the Truth of God, I can tell you, blessed ones, that you will know God when truly you know your Heart. You will ascend to God when your Heart has become a fiery furnace that carries you into the Oneness with your Mighty I AM Presence. But the Path is arduous, it is steep. It is not easy, but you did not ask for ease. Yes, there is Peace and Harmony even in the striving, for indeed it is necessary to make the ascent. Then whence comes the argument to take a less steep Path? Could it be the inner rebellion of each one's own human creation? Could it be the records of returning karma that oftentimes intrude in the midst of darkness when one has let down the guard and is blind to their influence?

O blessed hearts, I, Maitreya, stand as the guardian of your Initiations, for now I speak directly to those who have embraced Saint Germain, El Morya, the Maha Chohan, and all of the Ascended Masters and Cosmic Beings that have come to you at this Altar to teach and instruct, to send the Ray of their Attainment and their Momentum to assist you. And I say to each one who is an initiate on the Path:

Behold, the Light of God burns brightly upon the Altar of your Heart! You need not concern yourself with failure, for the Victory is nigh! Nevertheless, hold fast to the ascending Rod of Power, lest you lose your footing along the way!

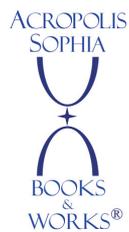

I trust that as the living ladder of the Hierarchy extends to each one of you Our Hand to clasp, to draw you a little higher, a little faster, that you will avail yourself of our assistance. For we want only the reunion of your outer vehicles in the Ascension in the Light with your Mighty I AM Presence. That is the journey. That is the goal. When there are sufficient numbers reaching for that goal of the Ascension and drawing nigh to it, you will discover the enclaves of Golden Age Ecclesias throughout the land where you will be welcome, where all will be welcome when they, too, come in the name of the Christ, in the name of the Buddha, in the name of the Light of the Mighty I AM Presence.

So I, Maitreya, repeat to you again:

Come, come to this Altar to receive your Initiations directly from the hand of not only your own God Presence but of the sponsor or sponsors of your lifestream that the Entire Spirit of the Brotherhood of Light has offered to you.

Blessed ones, hold fast. For we are just beginning!

I AM the Great Initiator
Lord Maitreya
