

The Whirlwind Action of the Sacred Fire Descends in a Torrent of Fire

I AM the High Priest, Zarathustra. When I stand in the Earth, I AM accompanied by the whirlwind action of Sacred Fire that descends into the Earth, catching all in this dynamic centrifugal force as that magnificent Light that is called forth by my Momentum of Service to the Heart of God. It comes forth in a descent to Earth and into your consciousness as an action of the release of that Sacred Fire that will not be denied. On its return, there is a reversal of the rotation of that current to dissolve away all that is unreality. It is this twofold action that allows for the Sacred Fire to not only send forth the Radiance of God to create worlds, but to purify them when they have become a part of the unreality and misuse by human creation.

You, as a Son and Daughter of God, are just beginning to learn how to invoke this Sacred Fire. You stand before your altar, placing your attention upon the Most High, your God Presence, and if you are attentive, you are able to galvanize your attention upon every word of your Invocation, your Decree, your Affirmation of God in manifestation. If you are strong in your conviction, the Fires of the Heart will feed every word, and as the word goes forth containing the Fires of the Threefold Flame of your Heart, Fohat will be released, manifesting the Fullness of that which you decree that is ratified by your God Presence.

Surely there are those among mankind who decree for anything, using the power of the throat chakra to invoke all manner of miscreation into manifestation, for they lack the Wisdom. Where there is not the Mind of God fully developed within the lifestream, allowing for Illumination's Flame to unfurl through the temple of the chela, there is the inability to know what is right and what is wrong.

So first, you must call forth the Light to purify your consciousness, to expand the Threefold Flame of your Heart, and to be willing to receive it. If you merely enter into your devotion halfway, half-heartedly, half understanding the process, you can see why there have been those times when your calls have gone unanswered by the Grace of God. For they would thrust you into some form of unreality that would hinder and stand in opposition to your ability to fulfill your destiny. While on the other hand, you may have called forth an action of life that would harm some other part of life and as quickly as you called it forth, using the Sacred Fire of the Threefold Flame of your Heart, it has reverberated back straightway to you as returning karma. There are those under the misconception that your karma is always held in abeyance. Maybe so, for those embodiments where you have not had benefit of the understanding of the Teaching of how to transmute those miscreations of life. But when you have been taught and tutored in the Sciences of the Spoken Word, where you are able to call forth from on high the Fires of Transmutation, the Fires of the Ruby Ray Action to descend as a whirlwind action to clear away the debris, then you, blessed ones, are responsible on the instant for these areas of life which you would pollute with your unreality.

Know well, blessed hearts, that the Law stands for all. It is a Universal Law that comes forth from the Heart of God. We, the Ascended and Cosmic Beings, do not make Law. We call Law forth from the innermost Heart of God, just as you would desire to call forth the Law of your Being from your own God Presence into your outer vehicles of expression. Why are they called expression? Because you are always expressing some part of life with the energy that beats your heart, that drives your emotional body, that fires your brain, that allows you the vehicle of conveyance. And when these vehicles are not properly disciplined according to the Law — which you will know from this point forward as Cosmic Law — you can begin to understand how a given lifetime would become so very difficult to transverse.

But I AM here to tell you, as do all who address you from this Altar, that you may change the way your life is going. You may take command, for you have the ability to send forth Fohat through your calls. That Fohat carries the Consciousness of your God Presence, and your God Presence answering that call, sends forth its Rays of God Consciousness out in all directions if necessary to direct into your own vehicles of expression every good and perfect gift, every opportunity, and to clear away all that would oppose that which is the Divine Will of that Presence.

But sadly what is missing in most of mankind's world is calling forth that right discernment. When Illumination's Flame burns brightly at the core of your being, it is the driving force that illumines every aspect of life, whether it be your responsibilities day-to-day; whether it be the vows that you have taken and how you will complete those vows; whether it is that love that is to stand beside you or love that you are to give; whether it is, blessed hearts, that Devotion you will engage with God. All this is driven by the Mind of God through you.

It is not enough to continually, year in and year out, excuse those thoughts of your mind that are streaming forth from your human consciousness. No, blessed hearts, you are to think with the Thoughts of the Mind of God that are impressed upon your vehicles by your Holy Christ Presence. For when your Presence desires to send you a directive, it is through this Office as the stepped down vibration of your own God Presence that is the Holy Christ Presence. And it is that Office that must over-shadow you to bring about every Divine Intent that God would have you to fulfill.

It is not easy to invoke the Fire, to hold that Fire until the time when that Fire must move through you, fulfilling its destiny. And oftentimes it is enough that that Fire descend into your vehicles of consciousness to consume, right where you are in that moment, all sense of limitation. For indeed that limitation is your first stumbling block and opposition to your Victory. For when you believe anything of lesser value about yourself, you impose the Light that is given to you daily from your God Presence and reinforce that very limitation. Can you not see how such repetition would drive that limitation into a crystallized build-up that would require the Ruby Ray to come forth to consume it, to annihilate it, to have that miscreation of your own sense of limitation go into the Flame.

There will be those times when you call forth the Sacred Fire that you will be sure you will swoon with the release of that decent of Light, and yet you find that you eventually reach a certain point of equilibrium where you are standing in the center of that vortex of Light. And all is calm. Not unlike the eye of a hurricane. But in this case, it is a torrent of Fire that is not merely allowing you to stay at rest. But you are caught up in that Fire as it returns back to the Heart of God, purifying, moving through the cells, atoms, and electrons of your being, establishing a clear pane of consciousness. It is washing clear the emotional body and you are not moved, for you understand that this Pillar of Fire that you are within brings you no harm. Suddenly you discover you are at home! All of your seemingly human defenses are put away, and you no longer hold back from letting go, surrendering all into that Flame.

This is an exercise, blessed hearts, that you would do well to practice over and over each day. For it is a similar action to that of the Ascension Current that one day you will be called upon to step into and to take that last step fearlessly so that that Current can catch up every part of your being and draw up every one of your lower counterparts in this world of form into your own Electronic Body. And then you will emerge from that Flame standing centered in the Light and Free, nevermore to incarnate into the physical octave. But you will have obtained the Mastery of this physical octave. You will know what drives the mental plane. You will know what drives each of those elemental forces of nature — earth, water, fire, air, Akasha. And you, blessed hearts, will carry that Attainment with you, masterful and ready to go forth and do the bidding of your own Electronic Body. For it has been many ages, indeed, since your Mighty I AM Presence first descended into this Earth and determined to take up this challenge of incarnation so that there could be greater Mastery to return back to those Realms of the Octaves of Light to fulfill its Fiery Destiny.

And this, blessed hearts, is not a work of one lifetime or even twelve lifetimes. While it does take many, many, many lifetimes, most of you have been here far too long. It is time to awaken the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart, and this requires the whirlwind action of the Sacred Fire that descends in its torrent of Fire. It will ignite the Threefold Flame of the Heart that has been stalled for so very long and needs to be reactivated in its fiery intensity so that it can take command of your vehicles of consciousness and unfurl the banners of Love, Wisdom and Power that are the driving force of your own God Presence through its vehicle of expression as the Holy Christ Presence.

Do you see, blessed hearts? You are able to call forth this action because you have the Threefold Flame of the Heart. You have the Office of the Holy Christ Presence ready to respond and telegraph to the Mighty I AM Presence that, yes, the outer vehicle is ready. It is prepared to receive that onrush of Sacred Fire. And when you stand in that Fire, you will know of what I speak. You will feel it moving in, through, and around each of your vehicles of expression. When it hits the physical body, you will feel that as well. There will be no part of your physical body that is not touched and not reverberating with that vibration of change. And this change, blessed hearts, is good. Do not fear change! For without change there would be no point for the Teachings of the Ascended Masters. It is that change you require to make your Ascension.

You come forth with a Divine Destiny to fulfill for your own God Presence. It is the particular God Quality that your God Presence desires to most assuredly have a greater mastery of than others. All the while you are realizing that you must have a modicum of attainment of each of those Rays of God Consciousness throughout all your incarnations in order to ascend. But during the course of your incarnation, you are changing. You learn in the beginning through trial and error what hurts and what brings comfort, but this is child's play. If you desire to be a Priest or Priestess of the Sacred Fire, then you will begin to refine your appetite for these subtle planes of Light. You will understand when a piece of music is played what Current of Light that music is activating, what Vibration it is resonating with, what acceleration is occurring?

This is why we prompt our Representatives to use particular pieces of music for you to meditate upon. It is to invoke a certain current so that you might more easily ride that current into the Heart of your own God Presence and the Heart of the Ascended Master who is addressing you. It is likewise a greater assistance to you to have something to hold your attention while you are being accelerated by the transcendent acceleration of our Vibration of Light and Consciousness within your forcefield. And as quickly as we enter fully into your atmosphere, that Vibration is released and the sanctuary is prepared. And we are able to perform our Perfect Work with you.

But when one elects to sit in their own stupor of nothingness and not accept that which is offered freely, then nothing is what they will receive. Sadly, there are those who would come and sit in our midst, hearing the Sacred Fire released, perceiving the difference, but because they are not willing to change their life, they must deny the Presence of the Ascended and Cosmic Beings. They must deny the Office of the Anointed Representative. They must deny their own God Presence. And they slither off to find their own level of awareness of life.

Do you realize, blessed hearts, how easy this rejection is to accomplish? Surely you must. The moment that you let down the pressure of your own striving, you begin to descend into lesser states of vibration. Whereas the striving is acceleration. The Invocations, Decrees, and Affirmations are an acceleration of your being. It is the gentlest way in which you, as an incarnate Son or Daughter of God, can have the Fires accelerated into your life without causing great discomfort. And I do mean great discomfort were it to come about all at once with the blink of an eye. There are those adepts of old who could tell you many stories of those occasions in their own attainment where they were smited by the Lord and the Fires of Heaven in order to activate the Currents of Light within them so that they could accelerate rapidly on the Path in order to accomplish their High and Holy Calling. Well you, blessed hearts, are given a gentler path to follow.

The way is made clear. The Fire is ready for you to receive at any given time you should elect to take up the Torch and call forth that Fire into your life. The Sacred Fire that comes forth into your countenance at any given time will elect to work on particular areas of your life. It may be hidden cesspools of negativity that must go into the Flame to be consumed for you to have a greater portion of Light released into your temple to perform the Divine Work that you are to accomplish. For given the amount of Light required for your lifestream, if that cesspool of negativity were to remain, there would be such great consequence if that were misqualified again by the Light that you would not be able to recover in that lifetime without greater assistance from On High.

We afford that assistance to many of you. Your petitions to the Lords of Karma are indeed just such an opportunity. Your petitions to the Cosmic Councils to enter into greater Service and to see that the Sacred Fire is anchored in the Earth is an opportunity for you, blessed hearts, to balance karma of your own making that is still held in abeyance and will not return until such time as you are able to receive that karma and transmute it if you are in lock step with the Divine Plan of your God Presence.

And these are the occasions that the Karmic Board looks at. They determine whether or not you are accountable. If you have been responsible, if you have sacrificed, if you have been steadfast and constant, and if you have fulfilled all of the Law of Necessity to the greatest ability that you were able, then the Karmic Board has an easy deliberation and you as the faithful servant of God are given a task, a Dispensation, a boost of Light to consume that karma. Or it is held bound for some time while an enormous amount of Light can be garnered for the conscious use of your lifestream, Light that is able to move through your being as you continue to invoke it as the Limitless Light that never fails! Then it is an easy matter for that karma to fly. For it will be consumed by the Sacred Fire on the instant! For the Forces of Light now trust the Constancy of you as that servant of God who can be counted upon.

That is true Accountability, blessed ones. To be counted upon is a very important Virtue. And when the Christ is present, there is always Accountability, Responsibility, Sacrifice, Necessity fulfilled, and Constancy. And this allows your God Presence and all the Ascended and Cosmic Beings to have the faith in you to help you, to assist, to answer your call. How sad it would be if you were to on occasion make a call to your Presence or to one of the Ascended Masters for assistance and that Presence or Master looked back at you with a discerning eye saying: "Oh, how I would love to answer that call, but it is not lawful. For Cosmic Law does not allow me to give that assistance in this hour because there has not been the transmutation required. There has not been the bending of the knee in surrender. There has not been the forgiveness given. There has not been an accountability of the lifestream staying the course, even for a modicum of time, in order for us to establish a current of Light, an ongoing current of Fire with that lifestream, that would keep at bay all of that negativity or old habits that must be consumed."

Do you see, blessed hearts, we do not ask you to decree for our benefit. We ask you to decree for your own benefit and salvation, for your own Ascension in the Light. For it is easy enough for us to send forth the Ray of God Light and to consume outer darkness on the instant. That is child's play to an Ascended or Cosmic Being. But you, blessed ones, must master that power for yourself. It is your requirement of the Law. And in this era the Dispensation has gone forth for you to become a Priest and Priestess of the Sacred Fire at your own altar. Before you are given the ability to tend to the Altars of the Most High when you are ascended, you must earn that right while unascended. And this is the process — bending the knee before the altar, calling forth the Light of God to transmute, consume, and annihilate all unreality, first and foremost in your own life and then in the world at large.

In so doing you bring no harm to any lifestream, rather it is a beneficence, a grace, for they oftentimes do not know how to call forth that Light for themselves. So you call forth the Ruby Ray Action. You call forth the descent of the Light of God, of Illumination, so that there can be the direction of that Ruby Ray Action into the cause, effect, record, and memory of all that would stand to oppose their lifestream or lifestreams, all that would stand to oppose your own lifestream, all that would stand in the way of your Victory. Mighty Victory is fearless. If you utter the word Victory, know that it is sponsored by Mighty Victory. Just that word Victory holds the Fohat of Mighty Victory. And it will not be denied.

When you call forth your own God Presence I AM, you are calling forth an action of Individuality acting upon the Allness of God that will create. This is why there have always been those who have understood that to call forth the I AM as an Affirmation of Faith is not egotistical. It is Divine. And it is only those who are thinking with a mind that is of a lesser vibration than the Mind of God, who are still living in their own ego of the outer consciousness, their own outer emotions and the desires of the flesh who cannot see beyond the earth earthy into the rarified atmosphere of the Light of God. This is why you, blessed hearts, are to internalize the I AM. It is your Light. It is your God Consciousness. It is your rarefied atmosphere that you lower into manifestation through your vehicles as much as the Law will allow.

And we are back to the Law again. For yes, blessed hearts, Cosmic Law dictates that the Holy Christ Presence can envelope your consciousness, can wrap you in arms of the Comfort Flame as the integration of the spiritual centers of your being, aligning you with your Heart Flame. That Heart Flame is your entrée into the Heart of your own God Presence. And as quickly as you are within that Vibration that is Pure and Holy, you have the ability — if you have the attainment — to elevate your consciousness into the realms of your I AM Presence. Oh my, how you should long for that day. For when your calls release the Light from the Presence and your Heart leaps in rapture and love to that Presence, you are knit together as one vehicle of Consciousness. And you will know why we are ever so Constant in our Service to you to remind you of your own Office of the Presence of God.

As I have been speaking, there has been lowered into the Earth a golden shaft of Light, spinning with a whirlwind action that by the Direction of the Mind of God is releasing the Ruby Fire to go into those areas wherever there is a Son or Daughter of God to consume all unreality and to allow for as much as the Law will allow to be consumed, to be re-polarized and returned back to the Heart of God. For there is, blessed hearts, no mortal thing that can stand in that Fire.

During the remainder of the time of my Presence with you, the Cloven Tongues of Fire will descend from my own Consciousness and the coals of Fire of Golden Light from my eyes will kiss your brow and ignite a Halo of Sacred Fire in your crown chakra and of Illumination's Fire of the Heart. As this action goes forth, you will feel the Fiery Furnace of God's intense Love for you burning upon the Altar of your Heart. You will feel an action in your third eye that may for a time spin faster than you have known before. And should you have a discomfort in that area, know that it is not harmful. It is doing the Perfect Work that is required to accelerate your consciousness, to accelerate your vision, to open the crown to accelerate your own Threefold Flame.

And these Initiations, blessed hearts, will not occur en mass for all. You must be ready. Therefore we did announce our coming for some time so that you would ready your chalice, ready your vehicles of consciousness. And you will know if you have been the recipient of this Initiation this day. If not, do not be dismayed. You may acquire this Release and at some future time when you have prepared the way, I will reactivate from my own Conscious Awareness these Initiations for you. For we do understand that attainment does not come to all disciples all at the same time. But nonetheless the Initiations must come forth for those who are ready!

For, blessed hearts, we require more Light to be anchored in the Earth. We require the Ruby Ray Action of God's Love to go forth. For there is much afoot in the Earth that must be consumed by that action to release the Fires of God in their purest forms upon the Earth. Too much has been laid as a foundation for the Sons and Daughters of God to bring forth a Golden Age than at this point to ignore what is right before the gaze of all. We have deliberated in our Cosmic Councils and it has been determined that the Ruby Ray Fire must be in action, along with the Release of Elohim, to adjudicate all that is going on in the Earth.

So as you prepare yourself for this Initiation, elevate your consciousness. Hold fast to your own Heart Flame of love for God. Know that you will be standing in the Holy of Holies of your own Secret Chamber of the Most High. You will be kissed upon the brow with the Light of God. And you will drink in the Elixir of Life as the Current of Golden Light, tinged with the Ruby Action of God's Love pours through you, filling every crevice, every cell, atom, electron, every vehicle of consciousness that you are and holding you firmly in the embrace of God.

Let the Fire go forth! And let the descent of this Sacred Fire perform its Perfect Work!

Chamuel and Charity will seal this Action with their abiding Presence in your life through their Angelic Kingdom, and you will be protected so that that which you have received will not dissipate, save you throw it off by miscreation willfully engaged with great disregard. Know that you must enter into Communion daily with your Presence to continue to breathe upon this Sacred Fire with the sanctity of the Secret Chamber of your Heart.

Go now and Be the Christ that you came to be.
