Intonation of the Great Central Sun

Harvest Conclave 2013

The banquet feast, laden with the fruits of the harvest, rests upon the table. Upon each golden platter Divine Attainment overflows, pouring forth the God Consciousness of Perfection and Abundance. The heavy-laden table bows beneath the weight of the Abundance of the Light of God flowing forth from a center cornucopia, spilling over with the very best Gifts from the Heart of The One. Every good and perfect Truth and Divine Attribute alive within the Ascended Master Octaves is displayed with a dazzling, radiant brilliance, shining as the sun in the noonday sky — scintillating, sparkling, dancing — alive with movement and momentum. From every point in space reverberates the glorious symphony of the Music of the Spheres intoning that keynote of your own Mighty I AM Presence, echoing chords of perfect harmony. The air is heavy-laden with the fragrance of jasmine and myrrh. The Light of the Abundance of God is palpable, tangible, and full to overflowing at every turn. And the Goddess of Light extends an invitation to you:

Come! Be filled to overflowing! And bear witness to the Abundant Life of God that is prepared for you!

The Great Central Sun and the Causal Body Discourse – October 2, 2013

The Great Central Sun breathing within itself contains magnificent reverberations, harmonious tones, and glorious overtones of different frequencies and vibrations — all together making one collective chord of Divine Harmony. As you learn the intricacies of the great dynamo that is the Great Central Sun, you will come to understand why your Causal Body was fashioned and the role that it plays in the Cosmos. Your Causal Body is the repository of all the Momentums of Good achieved by your lifestream during your long pilgrimage as the Godhead Charioteer. But being a storehouse is only one of the many facets and functions of your Causal Body. During this Conclave, you will learn more about the magnificent qualities of this vehicle of your Presence and discover how this knowledge can change your life.

Establish the Intonation of Your Causal Body Tara – October 2, 2013

Tara, Hierarch of Akasha, instructs you to be like a singing bowl, to have transferred to you each God Quality with its respective sound, rhythm, and structure that builds the fabric and foundation of life. Your outer vehicles need training to hold fast to the Divine Patterns that you recognize as the Truth of your God Identity. Your task is to draw forth who you are, allowing your Presence to reside all about you and intone the keynote of your Identity. To have the Realm of Akasha be your touchstone of Reality is worth every erg of energy you must draw to the fore. Tara asks you to hold fast to all that is given to you, for many Dispensations may not come again. Rehearse them, hold onto them, and make them your own.

Stand as the Truth of Cosmic Law to Assist America Discourse – October 3, 2013

The Ascended Masters call upon their disciples to take up the Sword of Truth and engage in practical service, invoking the Light on behalf of America and the economic situation she faces. Looking with the single-eyed Vision of Cyclopea, you are to pierce through the sophistry perpetrated throughout the land that denies the need for individuals to take Responsibility over their own affairs. Civilizations go through life cycles and as they come into their own with an attendant prosperity, peace, and opportunity, there is an even greater need for its citizenry to strive to follow the precepts of Cosmic Law. The Truth of Cosmic Law is immutable, and as you wield that Truth on behalf of yourself and the nations of this world, you will see the Golden Age dawn upon the Earth.

Your Destiny and Responsibility as the Godhead Charioteer

Pallas Athena - October 3, 2013

Speaking on behalf of the Karmic Board, Pallas Athena explains that you, as the Body of God upon Earth, must make the call for the protection of the holy and innocent and for the righting of the economies of the world! The political landscape on every front and in every country must come under the God Dominion of the Karmic Board, the Darjeeling Council, and the Brotherhood of Light! Hold the Vision, the Immaculate Conception, of the Divine Intent that the Brotherhood desires for the United States. You have the opportunity to give the very calls that the Earth needs. For a God-Victorious civilization to take hold upon the Earth, Cosmic Law must be upheld at the core of every endeavor, in the life of each individual, and in the country itself.

Understanding and Accessing Your Causal Body Discourse – October 3, 2013

Your Causal Body is a living, breathing, sentient vehicle, intoning vibration and sound like a series of tuning forks, an orchestra, or the great Wurlitzer organ. It interprets the thoughts of the Mind of God and is constantly resonating and reverberating with the harmonious chords and tones of the Great Central Sun. This is where the term Music of the Spheres comes from. Your Causal Body steps down the intensity of the Light of the Electronic Body, translating, transforming, and passing it on to the Christ Presence and the higher mental body. You can learn how to lower the Perfections of your Presence into this outer world by accessing the Momentums stored within your Casual Body.

The Great Divine Director, Manu of the Seventh Root Race, reveals that it is his great honor to serve your Presence and the Flame of God burning upon the Altar of your Heart. The Violet Flame is a major key that cannot be ignored. By invoking the Violet Flame, the Illumination of God has the opportunity to announce God's Will to you, and you can follow the Path home to the Heart of God.

Live the Ascended Master Way of Life Discourse – October 4, 2013

What is an Ascended Master Way of Life? How is it lived? How do you embrace it? The Ascended Master Way of Life is a commitment to living these Teachings, day in and day out, in conformity with the way the Ascended Masters live their life. As you learn how to embrace the precepts of Cosmic Law, knowing what to abstain from and what to engage in, you will become the open door for your Presence to act through, and your day- to-day experience will outpicture the vibration of the Higher Realms. Purity of Consciousness allows for this closeness with your own I AM Presence and an Ascended Master's sponsorship of your lifestream.

Remember the Purpose of Incarnation Goddess of Light – October 4, 2013

The Goddess of Light, Chohan of Akasha, reminds you that incarnation is opportunity! Your Presence does not owe you life — you owe your life to the Presence! She petitions you to remember why you came into embodiment — what you are destined to fulfill! What are those areas of life that you knew before coming into incarnation would be a challenge that you must now stand, face, and conquer — and be God Victorious over! You must ask yourself how long you will tarry with the unreality of your outer vehicles, letting them rule your life? How long will you put off to another day the cycles that your Presence desires to bring to the fore for you? The Goddess of Light commends you to increase your ability to reside in your Christhood, to accept your Presence at every turn, and to continually surrender to the Heart of God.

The Flow of Creation from the Mind of God Discourse – October 4, 2013

All of creation is one living, breathing organism knit together. It is a Cosmos of order, adornment, and Beauty, with the One Heart, One Life, and One Mind of God enveloping all within. Because there is oneness, the Authority of The One to say what shall happen within itself goes unchallenged. The thought of the Mind of God is harmonious, perfect, and constant. That thought measures and modulates the flow of Life, so as that Life exits the Great Central Sun, it goes forth as a Liquid Light Sound Ray with all the seed patterns capable of germinating, then culminating in the creation of form.

Below are general guidelines for installing the audio files on your computer or mobile device. Please feel free to contact us at 520-751-2039 or broadcast@thetemple.ws if you have any questions. You can find updated instructions on The Temple's website on the DVD instructions web page, which you can access from the Helicon Broadcasting menu.

The audio files are stored in a folder on the DVD bearing the name of the Conference or Acropolis, and each audio file has an M4A extension (filename.m4a). The M4A format is supported by virtually all music playing software for PCs, Macs, and mobile devices.

PC Instructions:

Windows Media Player

- 1. Place DVD into CD/DVD drive on computer.
- 2. Copy the folder containing the audio files from the DVD and paste into the My Music folder on your PC. This will automatically add the album to the music library for Windows Media Player.

Other Music Applications

If you prefer to use a different music player application, then you will need to perform an additional step to import the files into the application's library. The appropriate action should appear on each application's File menu. For example, for iTunes select Add Folder to Library, for WinAmp select Add media to Library, for MusicBee select Rescan /Add Files, and for MediaMonkey select Add/Rescan files to the Library. In all cases, make sure the album folder in the My Music folder is included in the selected folders.

MAC INSTRUCTIONS:

iTunes

- 1. Place DVD in CD/DVD drive on computer.
- 2. In iTunes menu, go to Edit > Preferences > Advanced. Make sure that Copy file to iTunes Media folder when adding to library is checked.
- 3. In File menu, select Add Folder to Library > select the folder on the DVD.

Other Music Applications

If you prefer to use a different music player application, make sure the application is configured to copy files to its media folder on the hard drive when importing the album from the DVD.

ANDROID INSTRUCTIONS:

- 1. Insert the DVD into the CD/DVD drive on computer.
- 2. Make sure the screen is unlocked on the Android device, and connect it to a PC using a USB cable.
- 3. In Windows Explorer on the PC, the Android device will be visible. Browse to the Android Music folder.
- 4. Copy the album folder and paste into the Android Music folder.
 - a. If you see a prompt, Do you want to convert ... before it's copied to your device? click on No, just copy. Otherwise the files will be converted to MP3 files, which will be slightly lower quality than the original M4A files. The M4A files should play properly on your Android.

iOS (iPhone, iPad, and iPod Touch) Instructions:

Third Party Utility Program

We recommend using a third party utility that allows you to selectively transfer files from a PC or Mac to an iOS device.

There are a number of such utilities. For the PC, we have found that CopyTrans Manager works well. It is a free Windows application available at: http://www.copytrans.net/copytransmanager.php.

Once the application is installed, these are the steps to transfer the album:

- 1. Place DVD into the CD/DVD drive on computer.
- 2. Connect the iOS device to your PC with the USB cable.
- 3. In the PC Start Menu, click on CopyTrans Control Center > CopyTrans Manager > Start > +Add. The Add tracks to library window should appear.
- 4. Select the album folder and click on Add.
- 5. After it has finished adding the files, click on the Update button. This will transfer the files to the device.

iTunes

An alternative approach is to import the album into iTunes on your PC or Mac, and then sync the iOS device with iTunes on the computer. Be aware, however, that this will erase all media files on the device that are not found in the iTunes library on the computer.
