Expose all carnal-minded pressure groups, dishonesty, bribery, corruption, and injustice associated with lobbyists, unions, political activists, political parties, and entrenched party machines using glamour, fascination, deceit, and manipulation to take advantage of mankind's desperation and misfortune, promising something for nothing during elections and the legislative process.

Expose the cause and core of all manipulation of census data and the electoral process.

Expose the cause and core of the manipulation of domestic and world economies, the cause of all totalitarian, dictatorial, or elitist governments and political movements, including godless communism, socialism, progressive movements, and authoritarian religious regimes.
